

TO DADDY FROM JA'DAJA

16 years of you being my dad is down the drain.
Nothing could describe this pain.
The memories we had but the chances to make more are gone.
Next year would make me 18 and I planned on seeing you again.

I wanted answers, but now I just want you to be here. I no longer care about the past I just want you to be in my future.
I love you dad.

Hopefully one day I get over this. Looking in the mirror reminds me of you. I used to say I didn't look like you when you always told me I did, I see it now.. you will be missed dearly.. I love being your first born; you were a good dad. I'm going to miss playing the game with you, us arguing about who's better, the Seminoles or the Gators, but mostly I'm going to miss being your Sugar Bean!

Bye Dad I love you.. until we meet again.

NOT ENOUGH TIME

The time we had, Dad,
Wasn't nearly enough
To pack in an entire
Lifetime of love.
There are so many questions
That we need answers to,
But now that you're gone
There's no way to ask you.
But there are still photos
To remember you by,
Each time we look at them,
we still want to cry.
They say grief is easier
to bear as time goes by,
But that doesn't stop us
from wondering why?
Why our dear, sweet dad
Was taken so soon,
When he was our guiding star,
Our sun and our moon.
There are no answers
To a question like this,
So we'll cherish your memory,
And mourn the years we'll miss.

Love,
Kennedi and Deven III

“It is Well with My Soul”

Devan Wayne Robinson, Jr., the loving son of Devan Robinson, Sr. and Lashawn Robinson, was born on April 11, 1988. He was affectionately called “Jr.” and/or “JJ” by his loved ones. Beginning at his age of understanding, the adults in his life taught him to show love, be obedient and humble, use manners, and to be respectful; he did not stray from his training. Devan was a resident of Hinesville, Georgia.

“JJ” is another link in reconnecting the Robinson and Feacher family chains. Preceding him in death were his paternal grandparents, James Arthur Robinson and Pearlie Mae Robinson and maternal great-grandmother, Ellen Feacher.

His personal confession of his belief in Jesus Christ as his Redeemer brought Devan boldly to the throne of grace. The joy of the Lord was his strength.

Devan was a gentle giant. On the one hand, he was outspoken and opinionated, but could also be funny with his playfulness and clowning around.

Jr. loved his family and showed his affection daily, for they were his pride and joy, and he was their provider and protector. He was an attentive and loving husband as well as the “World’s Best Dad.”

One of the greatest joys of Devan’s life was spending quality time with his extended family members. His love for them inspired him to use every opportunity to bring everyone together for any occasion, whether it was a weekend visit, a holiday gathering, cookouts, or impromptu “just because” activities where they could enjoy the fellowship, food, fun and to make memories to pass along to future generations. He also made it a point to stay connected with phone calls as often as possible.

Educated in the Madison County School District, JJ was a 2006 graduate of Madison County High School. He later received his Bachelor of Science (BS) degree in Business Administration from Grantham University. This opened doors for other career opportunities. He later received extensive training for certifications in law enforcement and worked on the local and federal level for the Department of Corrections. He studied to become an insurance agent before he qualified as a driver in the trucking business. He named his company “By Any Means Necessary - Logistics, LLC.” The adventurous road trips in driving the big rigs he named “Becky,” “White Chocolate,” and “Old Man” all helped him “See America first.”

“It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn’t go alone, for part of us went with you; the day God took you home.” The Lord chose Friday, February 9, 2024, to bring his compassionate servant home to receive a crown of righteousness from the Righteous Judge and to earn his eternal rest. Devan Jr. is gone from his loved one’s sights, but he can never be forgotten.

Devan Wayne Robinson, Jr.’s legacy of family, strength, goodwill, and his unconditional love for all will continually be embedded in his loved one’s hearts. Forever cherishing his precious memory are his loving and devoted wife: Tequila Reese Robinson of Hinesville, GA; daughters: Kennedi Robinson of Hinesville, GA and Ja’Daja Robinson of Valdosta, GA; son: Deven Wayne Robinson III; parents: Lashawn Robinson of Madison, FL and Devan Wayne (Debra) Robinson, Sr. of Trenton, FL; sisters: Katisha Shantrell Robinson of Madison, FL, Erica Brown of St. Petersburg, FL, Regina Barnes of Madison, FL, and Tanya Shaw of Sanford, FL; sister-in-law: Devetrianna (Juan) Williams, Latonya Nolen, Sydonna Reese, Nettie Reese, and Clara (Tyrone) Guinnie; brother-in-law: Antonio Reese of Tampa, FL, Derrick Reese of Riverview, FL, OC Akins of Quincy, FL, and Dawoo Shannon of Columbus, OH; maternal grandmother: Ella Mae Brown of Madison, FL; along with countless other sorrowing relatives and comforting friends.
