OBITUARY

Johnny Gene Hart, Jr. was born November 23, 1974 to Johnny Hart, Sr. and the late Jeannie Hart in Miami, Florida. He was the first of four sons. On February 28, 2025 God called Johnny home to take his rest.

Johnny attended school in the Miami Dade County Public School system. After school, he began working as a laborer. Later in life, Johnny moved to Alabama, where he was blessed to enjoy memorable moments with many family members and friends. After some time in Ozark, Alabama he met and married his best friend, Teresa Jeffries.

Johnny was full of love and life. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. Johnny began a career at the Wal-mart Distribution Center. His job gave him joy, and he enjoyed his work family. He dedicated his life to working, his family, and gaming.

Johnny is survived by his loving wife, Teresa Hart; sons, Shaquille, Raquan, Jaquan, Reginald (April), Phillip (Dominque), and Malcolm; father, Johnny Hart, Sr. (Betty); mother-in-law, Betty Hardesty; brothers, Jermaine, Jason, and James (Cobatha); brothers-in-law, Ricky (Angie) and James (Jennie); a special friend, Benjamin McCray; ten grandchildren; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and co-workers.
