

In Memory of Veron W. "Boyo" Edwards

January 6, 1957 - September 6, 2021

Obituary

Veron W. Edwards (Jamaica) aka (Boyo) was born on January 6, 1957, in Palmers Cross, Clarendon parish Jamaica West Indies. Veron earned his heavenly wings on September 6, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents, Samuel Nathaneil Edwards and Elsadia Edwards.

Veron migrated to America in 1977. He started his career as a Master Printer Press Operator at the Pressroom Union in New York. Years later, Veron found interest in helping the disabled by working as a bus operator for America Transit. As the Entrepreneur that he was, Veron started a share ride business where he would chauffeur people to and from New York City Airports. He discovered his retirement place in Ozark, Alabama, where he loved to fish and enjoy life to the fullest. Veron was best known in Ozark as an Herbal Naturist Gardner. When you were passing by his home, you were embraced with the pretty flowers and lawn that he proudly kept up.

Veron will be mourned by one sister, Sonia Edwards; three brother, Charles (Doctor), Leonard (Earl), and Valin Edwards; three sons, Samuel and Roberto (Bajo) Edwards and Lynwood Richardson; two daughters, Kasheika (Poochie) and Veronica Edwards; five grandchildren, Samantha, Sophia and Savannah Edwards, Logan and Lauren Kolenky; a host of nieces, nephews, grand-nephews, grand-nieces, lots of cousins, and most important his faithful partner Arnet Richardson for over 20 years.
