

Floyd Herbert Wulf

Floyd Herbert Wulf was born October 8, 1928, at Flandreau, SD, to Albert W. and Mayme I. (Haakson) Wulf. The family moved to rural Perkins County in the early 30's. Floyd attended the Seymour country school near Strool. He attended high school in Hettinger and two years of Ag school in Brookings. Following his education, he worked on his sister and brother-in-law's (Leotta and Bud Smith) ranch near Lodgepole. He bought a gravel truck and graveled roads from Faith to Shadehill and everywhere in between. Floyd and his brother Darrel farmed together in Perkins County.

Floyd married Marguerite Thybo at Reva, SD, on March 14, 1959. The couple farmed in the Alkali area East of Sturgis. They moved to Mound City and farmed for five years. Floyd attended Welding school in North Dakota and upon his return, they moved to Wyoming where Floyd worked road construction. They moved to Vale in 1973 and continued to farm with his brother Darrell, raising cattle and a feeder to finish pork operation. After Floyd retired from farming, he did woodworking and spent time with his family.

Throughout Floyd's life, he had many dogs as his companions. Most were named Tip, but Topsy, Gypsy, and Christine were some of his canine friends.

Floyd volunteered time and labor at the Vale Park. He also enjoyed taking his nieces and nephews fishing throughout his entire life. He enjoyed all children and they loved Floyd in return. His nieces and nephews were his greatest joy.

Floyd, 83, Vale, died Saturday, March 3, 2012, at the Sturgis Regional Hospital.

Survivors include his wife, Marge Wulf, Vale; one sister, Leotta Smith, Lodgepole; 27 nieces and nephews; and numerous cousins.

Floyd was preceded in death by his parents; twin brother, Lloyd; brother, Darell; and sisters, Verla Josephine and Doreen.

In lieu of flowers a memorial has been established.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

Around the Corner

*Around the corner I have a friend, In this great city that has no end.
Yet days go by and weeks rush on, And 'ere I know it, a year has gone.
And I never see my old friends face, For life is a swift and terrible race.*

*He knows I like him just as well As in the days when I rang his bell
And he rang mine.*

We were younger then: And now we are busy and tired men-Tired with playing a foolish game. Tired with trying to make a name.

"Tomorrow" I say, "I'll call on Him, Just to show I'm thinking of him."

*But tomorrow comes and tomorrow goes,
And the distance between us grows and grows.*

*Around the corner, yet miles away!
"Here's a telegram, sir!" Jim died today!
And that's what we get and deserve in the end:
Around the corner – a vanished friend.*

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread,
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely; For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life
remaineth - you shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you
home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*
