

If Tomorrow Nevers Comes by Norma Cornett Marek

If I knew it would be the last time
that I'd see you fall asleep,
I would tuck you in more tightly, and pray the Lord your soul to keep.

If I knew it would be the last time
that I'd see you walk out the door,
I would give you a hug and kiss, and call you back for just one more.

If I knew it would be the last time
I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise,
I would tape each word and action,
and play them back throughout my days

If I knew it would be the last time,
I would spare an extra minute or two,
To stop and say "I love you," instead of assuming you know I do.

So just in case tomorrow never comes,
and today is all I get,
I'd like to say how much I love you, and I hope we never will forget.

Tomorrow is not promised to anyone,
young or old alike,
And today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight.

So if you're waiting for tomorrow,
why not do it today?
For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day
That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss,
And you were too busy to grant someone,
what turned out to be their one last wish.

So hold your loved ones close today,
and whisper in their ear,
That you love them very much,
and you'll always hold them dear.

Take time to say "I'm sorry," "Please forgive me," "thank you" or "it's okay".
And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have no regrets about today.

Delphia “Del” D. Wiedmeier, the daughter of Christoph and Pauline (Stadel) Wiedmeier, was born on September 11, 1933, in Mound City, South Dakota. She grew up and attended school in the Herried area. She left home at 14 to babysit for her sisters in Fargo, North Dakota. Del moved back to Herried where she worked various jobs until she met the love of her life.

Del married Norman “Norm” Lester VanVugt on March 28, 1952, in Herried. In 1953, the couple moved to Huron, where Del worked at “Spudnuts” Bakery until she took time out to raise their family. After her family had grown, Del began working again, first at Bingo Gas Station and then at Lewis Drug for 17 years until her retirement in 1989.

Del was a long-time member of the Riverview United Methodist Church where she happily volunteered whenever needed. She was also a lifetime member of the Good Sam Club and the VFW Women’s Auxiliary. Del and Norm were very active with the Meals on Wheels program in Huron for many years. They were also volunteers for the Backpack Program and the Senior Center as well.

Del enjoyed crafting, and collecting angels, antique hats and stuffed cats. Another one of her favorite pastimes was going shopping for the next great deal. She and Norm also enjoyed traveling to the various Samboree Camping Events with the Beadle Bums Camping Club. After retirement, they would spend their winters in Mission, Texas, where they made lifelong friends from all over the country.

Grateful for having shared Del’s life are her two sons, Brad (Dixie) VanVugt of Huron and Monte (Marie) VanVugt of Black Hawk; one daughter, Amy (Jim) Iverson of Huron; five grandchildren, Matthew VanVugt, Michael (Meghan) VanVugt, Jamye (Tyler) Erb, Angel (Jaron) Stiegelmeier and Allanna (Deegan) Seidel; and six great-grandchildren, Olive and Finn VanVugt, Brooks Erb, Woodrow Stiegelmeier with a brother on the way, and Toby and Twyla Seidel.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Norm in 2017; her parents; her brothers and sisters; her brothers- and sisters-in-law; and several nieces and nephews.
