

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart go the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do miss me, but let me go.
When I am dead my dearest sing no sad songs for me
Plant thou no roses at my head nor shady cypress tree
Be the green grass above me with showers and dewdrops wet
And if thou wilt remember and if thou wilt, forget.
I shall not see the shadows, I shall not fear the rain;
I shall not hear the nightingale sing on as if in pain;
And dreaming through the twilight that doth not rise nor set,
Haply I may remember, and haply may forget.
