

Carol Jean Roe

Carol was born November 20, 1942, in Sturgis, SD, to Kennard and Hazel (Arneson) Hart. She grew up in Sturgis. Carol married James "Edsell" Roe in Sturgis in 1960.

She lived, laughed, and loved. Carol was tender with her listening ear, gracious with her giving heart, and loving with unconditional love. She did not judge others, but accepted them for who they were. She was fierce when her family was in trouble. She was herself with everyone.

Carol loved to play "In The Mood" on her piano and do leather work, which she did beautifully. She loved her roses, flower garden, and birds. Traditions meant a lot to her, and above all else, she was sassy, determined (you noticed that we did not say stubborn), giving, loving, and forgiving. She picked her battles to fight and helped others find their way. She prayed for and loved her family and friends. She fretted over her grandchildren and adored her great-grandchildren.

When Carol was blessed with her grandchildren, she said she could have skipped her kids and gone straight to her grandchildren. She said the same thing with the great-grandchildren.

Carol Jean Roe, 73, Rapid City, died Saturday, November 19, 2016, at her residence.

She is survived by her husband, James "Edsell" Roe; daughter, Sharie (Brad) Nelson; daughter, Hazel (Randy) Jackson; son, Jim (Dawn) Roe; special adopted daughter, Carmen Flockhart; sister, Gleza Stafford; brothers, Ed (Tawny) Hart and Fred Hart; thirteen grandchildren; and sixteen great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Bernie Hart; sister, Helen Blare; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Pauline and Jake Block; and two brothers-in-law, Monty Roe and Thomas Wendell Roe.

A memorial has been established.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The family would like to invite you to join them for fellowship and lunch following the service at the Vet's Club in Sturgis, SD. We thank you for your presence and condolences.

A Mother's Farewell To Her Children

When I must leave you, for a little while,
Please do not grieve, and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky

We never lose the ones we love
For, even though they're gone,
Within the hearts of those who care,
Their memory lingers on.
