Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Life Reflections

Mr. Jonathon Middlebrooks, son of Elaine Middlebrooks Minor was born January 22, 1966. He made his transition on January 5, 2021.

Jonathon was a graduate of Benjamin E. Mays High School in Atlanta, GA. After high school, he served in the United States Marine Corps and was honorably discharged. He continued his education at Georgia State University where he earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree. During his time in college, he also pledged the Omega Psi Phi fraternity, Zeta Theta Chapter as a member of the Junkyard Five. He was active in the fraternity, holding various positions such as Keeper of Seals and Dean of Pledges. He was also affiliated with the Grad Chapter Eta Omega.

In his professional life, Jonathon worked for several companies. He spent the last 19 years with Crawford and Company as a Manager for International Reporting, where he was the interface between the company's international finance operations and financial reporting function. He also worked as a collegiate football official holding the position of Field Judge. During his officiating career he worked with various conferences including the SWAC, Southern, Sunbelt and most recently the SEC, and he was awarded multiple post season assignments.

Jonathon leaves to cherish his precious memory, his children Jamilah and Joshua; his mother, Elaine Minor; his brother, Fredrick; and numerous other relatives and friends.
