

Daisy M. Hareter

Daisy M. Hareter was born in Spearfish, South Dakota on January 6, 1935 to Agnes Muriel and Lee Thomas. She went to Spearfish grade schools and high school. Daisy worked for the Dorsett home in Spearfish for 3 years before injuring her back putting her into retirement on disability. She also worked at the Canyon Café, the Hills Drive Inn in Spearfish and the Best Western in Sturgis for a couple of years each.

Daisy moved to Casper, Wyoming in 1994 and then moved to Grand Junction, CO in 2010. She enjoyed having company and visiting with family and friends, reading (while she had her vision), cooking, baking and working outside with her flower gardens. She also loved listening to music especially Polka music. Daisy attended Pear Park Baptist Church and St Mary's Life Center.

Survivors include 2 sons, Bob Syers, Grand Junction, CO and James (Peggy) Cook, Whitewood, SD. Four daughters, Kathy Syers, Grand Junction, CO, Shirley Hahka (John Oliver), Whitewood, SD, Helen (Edward) Pettitt, Grand Junction, CO, and Dixie (Dale) Walker, Grand Junction, CO. *Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*
