

The Lord's Prayer | Matthew 6:9-13

Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come soon. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us today the food we need, and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us. And don't let us yield to temptation, but rescue us from the evil one.

Obituary

Maggie White-Bulah was born on April 1, 1948, to Cornelius Solo White and Mary “Mae” Louise (Macintosh) White in Uniontown, Alabama.

In the mid-1960s, Maggie moved to Guam to pursue her passion for food service, beginning a distinguished career with AAFES in service to the United States military. She started in an entry-level position and advanced through the ranks over the course of her career, ultimately retiring at a GS-12 level—equivalent to a senior military officer—reflecting her leadership, dedication, and commitment to excellence.

Maggie’s career and love for travel allowed her to live and work in several countries, including Italy, Japan, Germany, and Guam. While stationed in Germany, her exceptional culinary skills and service earned special recognition, including a restaurant named in her honor, and high praise for Maggie’s Omelets, celebrating her talent and impact.

Maggie was known by her family as full of life, proud, and deeply accomplished. She carried herself with confidence and left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered, both personally and professionally.

Maggie White-Bulah passed away on January 6, 2026.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Cornelius Solo White and Mary “Mae” Louise (Macintosh) White; her brothers: Cornelius “Boa” White and Calvin White; brother-in-law: Issac Bullock and her grandparents: Tom White, Maggie White, Calvin Macintosh, and Levin Macintosh.

She leaves to cherish her memory her Daughter, Mary “Deloris” Wilson; her Siblings: Maxine Clark, Mattie Bullock, Naomi Harris, Carrie White, Robert (Stacy) White, Joe (Nancy) White, Glen White, and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Special Message

Mom, your love remains a part of who I am. I still pick up the phone to call you and say I love you and your voice telling me, “I love you and don’t you forget it.”

Love,

Your Daughter, Lois
