

23rd PSALM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoresth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
 for His name' sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
 of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: For thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me
 in the presence of mine enemies;
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life,
 and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Marlys Green

Marlys Ramona Holzerland was born to Eric and Minnie (Schultz) Holzerland in her farm home near Waubay, South Dakota on April 24, 1932. She attended the country school for 8 years and went to Waubay High School. Upon graduation she enrolled in beauty school in Watertown, South Dakota for one year and worked at the Granite Beauty Shop as a beautician. She met Claude Green there and they were married on April 25, 1954, at Zion Lutheran Church in Waubay.

Claude took over the lumberyard in 1955 at Yale, South Dakota, where they moved and built their home. Four children were born to them, Claudia, Cindy, Curtis, and Craig. They lived in Yale until 2008 when they closed the lumberyard and moved to Huron, South Dakota. Claude passed away in 2009 and Marlys eventually moved to SunQuest Village in Huron. She moved to Cresbard, South Dakota, to live with her daughter, Claudia, and her husband Russell Scotter, in 2018.

While she lived in Yale, she was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and was very active in the church. She taught Sunday School and confirmation classes and was a member of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League her entire life. They transferred membership to Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church when the Yale church closed. After her family was grown, she was a home caregiver at Prairie Crossings and Home Instead.

Marlys is survived by her children, Claudia (Russell) Scotter of Cresbard, Cindy (Jeff) Burich of Sturgis, Curtis Green of Sioux City, Iowa, and Craig (Connie) Green of Aberdeen; grandchildren, Deirdre and Micah (Jessica) Scotter, Kalee (Jon) Bakken, Ryan (Sudavi) Burich, Brad (Woodrie) Burich, Sarah (Jeremy) Bolden, Aaron (Samantha), Hannah, and Mariah Green, and Savannah Green; and 12 great-grandchildren; sisters-in-law, Barbara Holzerland, Lynn and Melva Green.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years, Claude; her brother, Arnold Holzerland; grandson, Lucas Green; and her parents, Eric and Minnie Holzerland.
