Miss Me – But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little – but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the Love that we once shared
Miss Me – But let Me Go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
And a step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me – But Let Me Go*

THE ROSE BEYOND THE WALL

*A rose grew where all could see sheltered beside a garden wall.
And, as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall...
One day, a beam of light shone through
A crevice that had opened wide –
The rose bent gently toward its warmth then passed beyond to the other side...
Now, you who deeply feel its loss,
be comforted – the rose blooms there –
Its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.*
