

Celebration Of Life

Saturday, April 1, 2023

1:00 to 4:00 PM

Church of the Nazarene
Huron, South Dakota

Viking Prayer

May the Gods of Asgard guide your steps towards their gates.

In your journey, may it be safe and filled with light.

May you find strength and courage from Thor in your darkest hours.

May you find wisdom
from Odin in times of confusion.

May you find beauty and lasting bonds from Freya and Frey.

May Loki give you laughter as you go.

May you have the compassion
of Baldr and the just actions of Tyr.

May your web be spun tightly with that which makes you stronger, happy and wise.

May the Gods always favour you.

Thank you for the many kindnesses you have shown us, and your presence today.

March 25, 2023

Christopher George Barnes was born on April 1, 1977, to Wilmer "Lee" Barnes and Georgzen (Brower) Brown, in Huron. Chris was raised in Wolszy, where he attended school, graduating from Wolszy High School in 1995. He then attended Mitchell Technical Institute, for his HVAC.

Chris was a jack of all trades, including construction, welding, pyrotechnics, mechanic, driving the party bus for events, and pretty much anything he needed to do to help someone out. He found his true passion working with his beloved Kagla running the childcare center.

Chris loved the medieval time period, one of his favorite events was the Minnesota Renaissance Festival, where he would attend with his family and friends yearly.

Chris was truly loved by everyone he came in contact with, he had a caring, kind and compassionate way about him, that drew people close to him.

Chris is survived by his mother, Georgzen (Charles Peterson) Brown; his father, Wilmer "Lee" (Julie Thomas) Barnes; his fiancé, Kagla Sides; his children, Gabriel Chapman, Logan Authier, Katana Keller and Kali Authier; his step-sister, Kelly Thomas; his nephew, Riley Jankord; as well as his extended family, Jeannie and Wayne Hofer and Michael Hofer.

His is also survived by his many uncles and aunts, Mike Barnes, Randall (Lois Doris) Barnes, Wesley (Peggy) Barnes and Wendell (Josie) Barnes; his aunts, Wanda Weiker, Wahngta Norton and Wilma (Jerry) Seaman; and many cousins and friends.
