

Loren Anton Humpal

Loren A. Humpal, 89, of Rapid City, SD, passed away Friday, April 17, 2015, at the Fort Meade V.A. Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, Cleone; children, Jean VerSchave, Tom Humpal, Shirley (Gary) Spaulding, Dan (Sandy) Humpal, Charlie Humpal, Gary (Linda) Humpal, Joan Van Skike, Sandy (Carl) Corona; 22 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; a brother, Marvin (Alice) Humpal; and a sister, Pat Koenig.

He lived a fulfilled life. After graduating high school at Fairfax, SD, he joined the U.S. Army and served our country overseas. After his honorable discharge, he went to South Dakota Southern State Teachers College in Springfield where he met Cleone. They married April 25, 1948, and spent 67 loving years together raising 8 children. During his teaching tenure, he taught mathematics and industrial arts, as well as coached various sporting teams for many different schools in South Dakota, Iowa, Oregon, and Arizona. In the summers, he would be found spending time on the family farm outside of Fairfax, SD. He loved music and played his accordion for many years. First and foremost, he loved his family and could always be found filming their time together.

He will always be loved and missed by all.

A memorial has been established to the Fort Meade VA Hospital or Hospice.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadee.funerals.com.

In Loving Memory Of

Loren A. Humpal

The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch in the church hall immediately following the funeral service.

We thank you for your presence and condolences.

"Onward Christian Soldiers"

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
with the cross of Jesus going on before.
Christ, the royal Master, leads against the foe;
forward into battle see his banners go!

Refrain:

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
with the cross of Jesus going on before.

At the sign of triumph Satan's host doth flee;
on then, Christian soldiers, on to victory!
Hell's foundations quiver at the shout of praise;
brothers, lift your voices, loud your anthems raise.
(Refrain)

Like a mighty army moves the church of God;
brothers, we are treading where the saints have trod.
We are not divided, all one body we,
one in hope and doctrine, one in charity.
(Refrain)

Crowns and thrones may perish, kingdoms rise and wane,
but the church of Jesus constant will remain.
Gates of hell can never gainst that church prevail;
we have Christ's own promise, and that cannot fail.
(Refrain)

Onward then, ye people, join our happy throng, blend with ours your voices in the triumph song.
Glory, laud, and honor unto Christ the King,
this through countless ages men and angels sing.
(Refrain)
