Annie K. Oswald

February 1, 1926

An aerial photograph of a rural farm. A large, light-colored barn with a dark roof is the central feature, with several tall, cylindrical silos standing next to it. The farm is surrounded by green fields and some trees. A dirt road or driveway leads towards the buildings.

Annie Kay Kleinsasser Oswald was born February 1, 1926, to David and Susie Kleinsasser at Onida, South Dakota. In 1937, Annie moved with her family to Huron.

On June 28, 1947, Annie married Robert T. Oswald at Huron. To this union two children were born, a daughter, Judy A. Oswald and a son, Danny R. Oswald.

Annie was baptized in 1951, by Elder Lindquist into the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Annie dedicated her life to her family, the farm and being a homemaker. She enjoyed the time spent with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Annie always had homemade cookie in the freezer to share with them. On special occasions, she would make homemade ice cream. She enjoyed the animals on the farm, especially her dog, Charley. She also had a love for music.

She was preceded in death by her parents; five brothers, Alvin, Rueben, Ervin, Willard and Jerome Kleinsasser; one sister, Verna Hein; and one son-in-law, Eugene Wipf.

Grateful for having shared in her life are her husband of nearly 76 years, Robert Oswald of Huron; her two children, Judy A. Wipf and Danny (Patricia) Oswald, all of Huron; six grandchildren, Michelle (Brendan) Stratton, Steven (Angelica) Oswald, Ginger (Brandon) Tucker, Travis (Heather Jungemann) Wipf, Sherry (Jeremy) Frost and Dustin Hofhenke; and her five-great-grandchildren, Sebastian, Dani and Christian Frost, Daniel Oswald and Wyatt Stratton.

Annie passed away Monday, May 8, 2023, at Avantara – Huron at the age of 97 years, 3 months and 7 days.
