

Mom You Are Now Free

Mom, we know we shouldn't grieve for you,
but we miss you.

We know that you are now free,
following the path God laid for you.
You took God hand when you heard Him call,
then you turned your back and left us all.

You couldn't stay another day
with us to laugh, to love, to work or play.
The tasks you left undone must stay that way,
but you will have found peace at the close of the day.

Your parting from us has left a void,
but we will fill it with remembering joy.

We shared a laugh, a kiss, a hug,
and yes, these things we will miss.

We will be burdened with sorrow,
but we can only wish for the sunshine of tomorrow.

Your life was full, you savored much good friends, good times, a loved one touch,
We love you and wish you could still be with us,
but we understand God wants you with him.

He has set you free.
We Love You Mom!

The Family's Message of Appreciation

We are truly grateful to each of you, our many friends, for the outpouring of love and support you have so generously shared with us during our time of bereavement. Our hearts are overflowing with love and appreciation to each of you. Your prayers, words of comfort, floral tributes, and countless acts of kindness have sustained us during our dark days since the passing of our beloved, Lou Ella Arnold Livingston. We thank God for friends like you and pray that He will give you blessings in abundance for the love you shared.

Lou Ella Arnold Livingston

"Lou Lou"

JANUARY 6, 1966 – JULY 22, 2024

"Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal."

Lou Ella Arnold Livingston, the daughter of Milton Garrison and Mamie Arnold, was born on January 22, 2024. She grew up with her blended family of six sisters and three brothers who affectionately called her "Lou-Lou." She was a lifelong resident of Greenville, Florida.

Earlier in her life, Lou Ella accepted Christ as her Savior and was baptized by faith. She became a member of Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church where she faithfully worshipped and praised the Lord.

Lou Ella was a loving, compassionate, giving and happy person. In her own way, she knew how to find the sunshine despite the rain, and she successfully spread this sunshine to others around her. The joy of the Lord was her strength. She loved her family unconditionally and was concerned about helping them to meet their needs and some of their wants. Constantly surrounded by her grandchildren was evident they felt she was the World's Best Grandma. Likewise, Lou Ella was a great sister to her siblings. However, she could be outspoken when she needed to be heard.

Lou Ella developed a work ethic which helped her to provide for her family. Her career jobs included employment at Gold Kist (Pilgrim's Pride) and McDonald's before she joined the food prep team at Popeye's. She was a dedicated employee who honored her commitment up to the day she transitioned. During her time away from the job, Lou-Lou enjoyed listening to music, dancing, and spending quality time with her family.

Lou Ella Arnold Livingston left her forever love for her family, friends, and coworkers when she transitioned from time to eternity Monday evening, July 22, 2024. She has now found "rest beyond the 'River'."

"It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you Home." Cherishing Lou Ella Arnold Livingston's love, life, and legacy are her son: Hakili J. (Gwendolyn) Washington, Sr. of Greenville, FL; daughters: Jasmine Livingston, Valdosta, GA, Yasmine Livingston and Kerria Livingston, both of Greenville, FL, and Kenyah Livingston of Valdosta, GA; bonus son: Roderick Livingston of Tallahassee, FL; bonus daughter: Jonquil Livingston of Tallahassee, FL; nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; brothers: Coleman Garrison, Milton Garrison, Jr., and Dondrell Garrison, all of Greenville, FL; sisters: Blanche Thompkins, Greenville, FL, Lillian Arnold, Tallahassee, FL and Louise Garrison of Aucilla, FL; aunts: Jane Arnold, Susie Jay, and Beulah (James) Livingston; uncle: Roosevelt Arnold; brothers-in-law: Israel Livingston and Henry (Nancy) Livingston all of Greenville, FL; sister-in-law: Nadine (Robert) Williams; special friend: Raymond Davis; together with countless other sorrowing relatives, loving friends, and compassionate coworkers. Loved ones who preceded Lou Ella in death were both parents: Milton Garrison and Mamie Arnold; husband: Charles Livingston; brother: French Garrison; and grandchildren: Hakili Washington, Jr. and Zion Washington.
