

Glen Erwin "Jack" Hubbard

Jack was born January 12, 1925, at Draper, SD, to H. Willis and Hilda (Dewey) Hubbard. The family moved to Vale, SD, in 1935, where they lived for a few years before moving to a farm north of Vale. Jack attended school in Vale.

Jack married Anna Belle Reid on June 30, 1949, in Belle Fourche, SD. He worked in a lumber yard in Kadoka where Ann taught school. Jack and Ann then moved backed to Belle Fourche and began many business ventures. They moved to California for about six or seven years and came back where he owned a salvage yard in Belle Fourche, trailer courts in Spearfish and Belle Fourche, a trucking company and storage units in Belle Fourche, and he bought and sold, cattle, horses, and sheep (but, mostly horses). Jack contracted Guillain-Barre' Syndrome 35 years ago. It slowed him down but never stopped him. Jack was a great story teller and will be remembered for all his tales.

Glen Erwin "Jack" Hubbard, 91, Sturgis, died Tuesday, January 26, 2016, at Sturgis Regional Hospital.

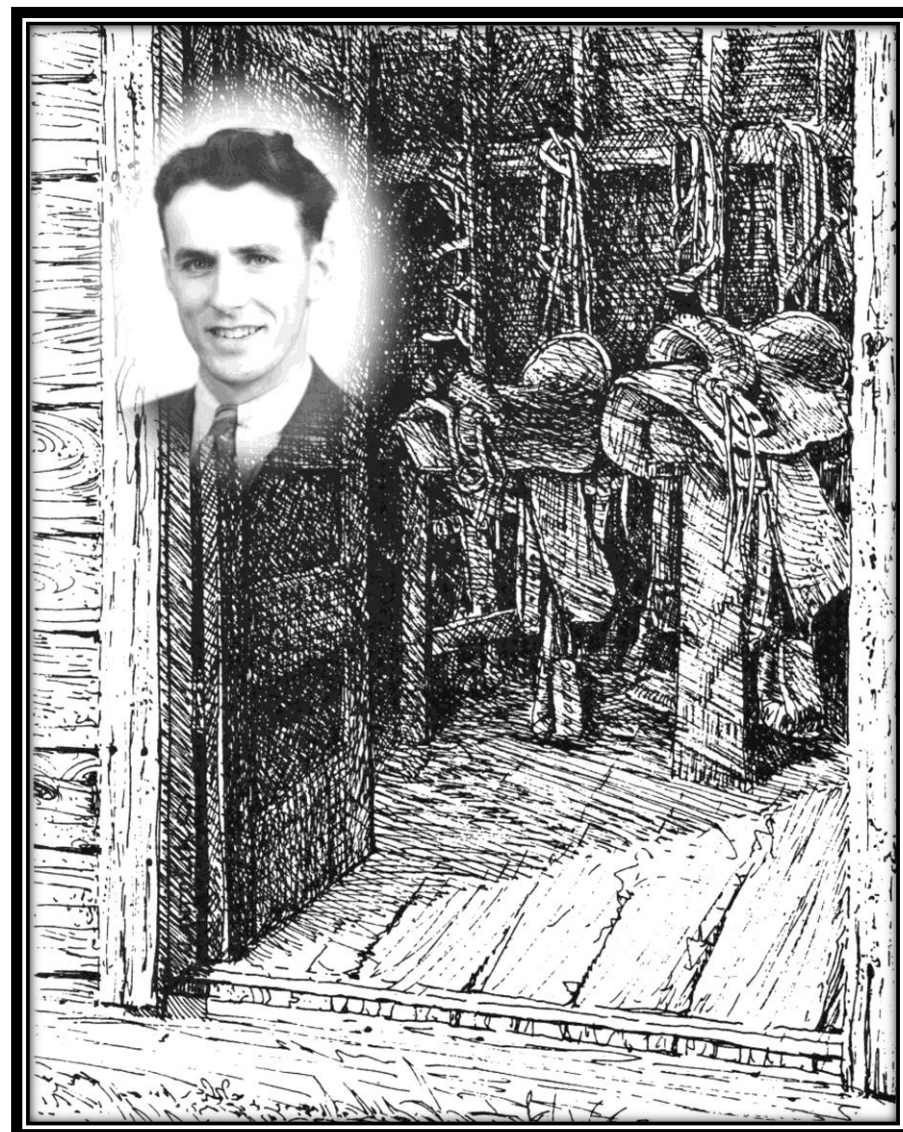

Survivors include a special niece and her husband, Rene and John Rhynard, Newell; brothers-in-law, Lester (Marie) Reid, Nisland, Ray (Diane) Reid, Belle Fourche, and Howard (Rosie) Reid, Belle Fourche; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Ann; and siblings, Gene (Mildred) Hubbard, Jerry Hubbard, Dena (Robert) Donahey, Dora (Harvey) Reid, and Betty (Mike) Butler.

A memorial has been established to the Sturgis Ambulance Service.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

*The family invites you to join them for fellowship and refreshments at the funeral chapel immediately following the funeral service.
We thank you for your presence and condolences.*

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
And so He closed his loving eyes
And whispered peace be thine.
The weary days, the hours of pain,
The weary nights are past,
The ever-patient, worn out frame
Has found "sweet rest" at last.
Dear Lord Jesus, give him eternal rest.*
