

When tomorrow starts without
me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find
your eyes,
All filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,

We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand,
And that I'd have to leave behind,
All those I dearly love.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.

A Life Remembered

Nina Agatha (Kloster) Mehlberg-Troske, age 93, the widow of Herbert Mehlberg and wife of Robert Troske died early Sunday morning, July 10, 2022 at the Avantara Nursing Home in Clark, SD.

Nina was born on July 16, 1928 in Woodland Township, northwest of Clark to parents Louie and Agatha (Tislevoll) Kloster. She was baptized and confirmed at Clark Center Lutheran Church and attended SW Woodland #6 grade school. She graduated from Clark High School in 1946. Following high school, Nina taught grade school for one year at SW Woodland #6.

On February 28, 1947, Nina was united in marriage to Herbert Mehlberg of Raymond. They farmed for many years in Ash Township, north of Raymond. In 1972 they moved their house to Clark and there they remained until Herbert's death.

Nina was one of the first employees of the Clark Care Center when it was built and she worked one year at St. Ann's hospital in Watertown in pediatrics. She then went on to become the secretary to the County Agents and Home Economists in Clark for 22 years. In 1984, she was honored with "State Secretary of the year."

On December 28, 2008, Nina was united in marriage to Robert Troske of Turton, SD.

She was a member of the St. Paul Lutheran church where she was active in WELCA and on the church council. She was a member of the Thrifty Gang Extension Club, Raymond Auxiliary, Aid Association for Lutherans, a bridge club, pinochle and whist group, and a birthday club.

Nina's most valuable assets were her family and friends. She enjoyed traveling, gardening, crafts, volunteer work, rummage sales, genealogy, bowling, board games, and coffee with friends.

Grateful for having shared her life is her daughter: JoAnn (Dennis) Peoples of Rapid City; grandson: Tyler (Sally) Peoples of Highmore; granddaughter: Courtney Peoples of Black Hawk; great grandsons: Brandon and Nathan Peoples of Highmore; one great granddaughter: Allison Peoples of Highmore; stepchildren: Gina (ED) Malsom and family, Steve, Jason, Christopher, Makayla, and John Troske; nieces: Carmen Kloster, Karen (Rich) Ackerman, and Judy (Rick) Bawek; and many other nephews and nieces.

She is preceded in death by her parents, husband Herbert, sisters Irene and Mabel, brothers Arthur and Erwin, and twin brother Paul.
