

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
remember some good I have done.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going;
I would not have you sad for a day,
but in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the shade of the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west.
Stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.
