

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me – by David M. Romano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne

He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

Joann Huber

March 7, 1939-April 7, 2024

Joann Huber died Sunday, April 7, 2024 in Cottonwood, MN.

Joann Frances Carr Huber was born on March 7, 1939 to parents Leslie and Ida (Heppler) Carr at Redfield, SD. She grew up with her five siblings and attended Redfield schools and graduated from Redfield High School.

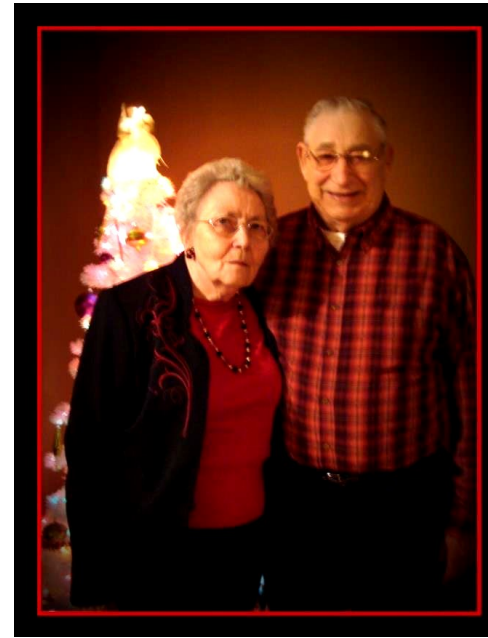

On September 28, 1959, she was united in marriage to Michael "Mike" Huber at St. Bernard Catholic Church in Redfield. They lived in the Tulare/Doland areas for many years before moving to Redfield. She worked at the South Dakota Developmental Center serving in many capacities. She began as a seamstress, then a cook, a housekeeper and lastly as a dorm parent.

She was a longtime member of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Doland until it's closing and then attended Mass in Clark and Redfield.

Her passions included sewing, anything from her husband's suits to the girls' prom dresses. Her main passion was praying for her family, both her immediate and extended family. She also loved rummage sales. Joann would rise extra early to get to the rummage sale for the good deals.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Leslie and Ida, her husband, Mike, a grandson, Gunnar, siblings, Duane Carr and Janet Marsh, and her son-in-law, Dan Barrett.

Grateful to have shared her life are her children, Debey (Doug) Senska of Forestburg, SD, Marcy Barrett of Baxter, MN, Cathy (Eugene) Loken of Cottonwood, MN, and Jesse (Tara) Huber of Crocker, SD, six grandchildren, Dianna Burger, Andrew and Shayna Loken, Dain and Madison Barrett, and Kailee Huber, and several great grandchildren.
