“DAE-DAE”

February 26, 2002 – June 21, 2025

*With a heart full of kindness and a soul full of grace,
You lit up each room with your calm, smiling face.
From Havana's streets to the skies above,
You lived every moment with laughter and love.*

*Your journey began with family near,
Guided by voices so precious and dear.
A brother, a cousin, a loyal best friend,
A life full of purpose that God chose to send.*

*You found peace in basketball's rhythm and play,
And “Call of Duty” helped wind down your day.
But flying through clouds brought the brightest delight—
A glimpse of the heavens, a taste of the light.*

*Though the time felt too short, the impact was wide,
You touched countless hearts with love as your guide.
A legacy built not on how long, but how well—
In each soul you warmed, your memory shall dwell.*

*Now called to rest in eternity's care,
You've traded your burdens for joy over there.
And though we grieve with hearts torn in two,
We thank the Lord for the gift of you.*

*So fly high, “Dae-Dae,” your mission complete,
Resting in peace at the Savior's feet.
Your smile, your spirit, your gentle embrace—
Forever etched in time and grace.*

“DAE-DAE” Delveyawn E M O N D D I X O N

February 26, 2002 – June 21, 2025

“Whosoever Liveth and Believeth in Me Shall Never Die”
John 11:26

Delveyawn Emond Dixon, affectionately known as “Dae-Dae,” was born on February 26, 2002, in Tallahassee, Florida, as the beloved son of Jackie Dixon, Jr. and Cynthia Tamioka Elaine Miller. They, along with other major influencers - his extended family circle, friends, and neighbors – shaped his life with values, guidance, and encouragement. He was educated in the Gadsden County School System and was a lifelong resident of Havana, Florida.

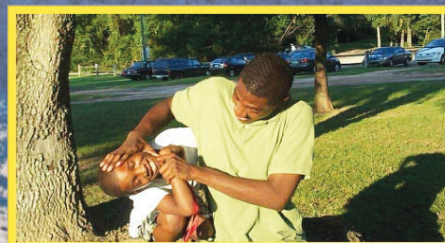

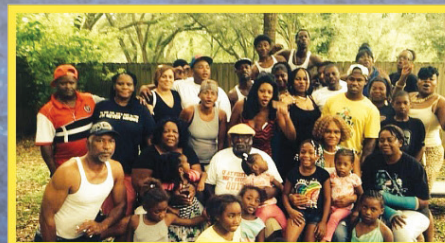

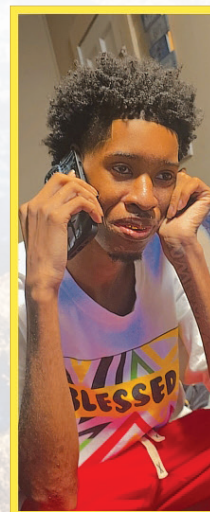

Delveyawn received in faith what the Lord gives freely in grace. He loved the Lord; he loved going to church to praise and worship Him. During the various phases of his life, his cool, calm, and collected / charismatic personality which reflected God’s love and promise, also enabled him to connect with others. He especially treasured the wonderful times they shared. Most important to him, however, was the incredibly special bond he developed with his siblings, cousins, and special friends.

“Dae-Dae” engaged in several leisure activities with great eagerness. He had a passion for playing basketball and looked forward to the challenge as his means of settling down from a busy day. He also anticipated the thrill of the “Call of Duty” game. Nonetheless, he welcomed opportunities for taking plane trips to various destinations, but his ultimate enjoyment was spending quality time with his family.

On Saturday, June 21, 2025, the Lord looked upon Delveyawn Emond Dixon with eyes of mercy and called his name to depart this earthly life. Then, in a moment and in the twinkling of an eye, he transitioned to his eternal home to receive his heavenly reward.

“Time is not measured by the years that you live but by the deeds that you do and the joy that you give....” Delveyawn Emond Dixon’s life, although brief, touched many lives in meaningful ways. The impact he made will forever shine as a fond memory for all who knew and loved him. His legacy of purpose, generosity, and enduring love will forever be embedded in his loved ones’ hearts and minds. Cherishing the love and special memories of this remarkable young man are his parents: Jackie Dixon, Jr. of Ft. Myers, FL and Pastor Cynthia (Daren) McGriff of Havana, FL; maternal grandmother: Cynthia E. Miller of Havana, FL; paternal grandmother: Elnora Dantley of Quincy, FL; paternal great-grandmother: Judy Flemings of Ft. Myers, FL; maternal grandfather: Cleve McClendon of Havana, FL; paternal grandfather: Jackie Dixon, Sr. of Ft. Myers, FL; brother: Mathis Mayor; sisters: Keiambernique Dixon of Quincy, FL, Antiniya Davis, Darianna McGriff, Dakaria McGriff, Dakiya McGriff, all of Havana, FL, Janequa Williams of AL, and Amaria Martinez of Ft. Myers, FL; special friend: Jeniah Mickens of Havana, FL; best friend: Jaylin Hinson of Havana, FL; along with many other sorrowing relatives; comforting neighbors, and loving friends.
