

Darlene Julia Ferber

Darlene was born in Sisseton, SD, to Milton Stavick and Ella Mae Holman on the 4th of July in 1949. Darlene lived in numerous locations in the Black Hills, her last residence being in Whitewood. She held many jobs, jewelry maker, bartender, and server. She loved hunting pheasant, antelope, deer, and fishing as nature was her solace. She loved to collect raccoons of every size, shape, and character to add to her collection. She danced like no one was watching. Sang to every song with no fear of judgement. She told jokes that made the hardest men blush. Through all her trials and tribulations, she lived life to the fullest. Her laughter will ring through the hills and pines forever eternity.

Darlene “Dolly” Julia Ferber passed from the bonds of earth September 12, 2020.

Our Father

Who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen
