

Jamie L. VanDervoort

Jamie L. VanDervoort, 45, Piedmont, SD, passed away peacefully with her husband, Reed by her side on Thursday, July 11, 2024, at Monument Home Plus Hospice House in Rapid City after a courageous battle with cancer.

Jamie L. Fettig was born April 10, 1979, to James and Susan (White) Fettig in Rapid City, SD. She was raised in the Sturgis area, attended school there and graduated from Sturgis Brown High School in 1997. Jamie grew up riding and training barrel horses and was active in rodeo from a young age. During her teenage years she won many belt buckles and saddles as awards for her performances. She also qualified for the National High School Rodeo Finals four years.

After High School Jamie attended Black Hills Beauty College, later continuing her education in Gillette, WY. Jamie was a successful business woman, always dreaming up new business ideas even in the last few months of her life. She operated J & S Saddle & Tack which she took over from her parents. Later she started All That Glitters, Ranch Diva, and most recently, To The Moon & Back Photography, among other business ventures. Photography was her biggest passion. Jamie always strived to be the best at whatever she set out to do. She married, Reed VanDervoort on September 4, 2016, at their ranch near Piedmont. She enjoyed working together with Reed on the ranch in the years to follow.

Jamie's love for the Lord made her a warrior with strong faith. It gave her the strength, courage and grace to go through the tough times that came her way. If you told Jamie she couldn't do it or it couldn't be done she'd defy it and do it anyway. She was incredibly strong and resilient. Jamie also had a kind and gentle heart and loved animals, especially baby ones, flowers, nature, and wildlife. Most of all, she loved her husband, children, and being a mom.

Jamie is survived by her husband: Reed, Piedmont; children: Caelan Farlee (Ashley Mundt), Piedmont, Cassidy Farlee (Alan Lemke), Carsyn Farlee, both of Dupree, Roan VanDervoort, and Bryndle VanDervoort, both of Piedmont; brother, Jay Fettig, Vale; grandmother, Angie Fettig, Rapid City; along with numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Jamie was preceded in death by her parents, James, and Susan Fettig.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

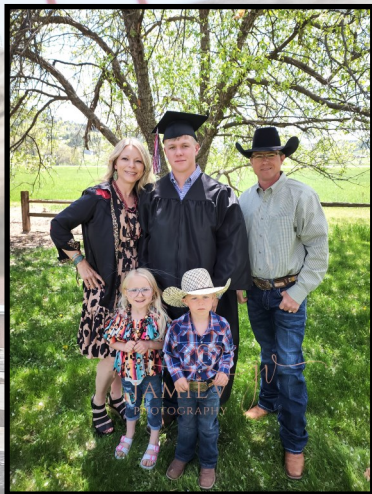

The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch following the service at the church gymnasium. Thank you for your presence and condolences.

In Loving Memory Of

Jamie L. VanDervoort

April 10, 1979 ~ July 11, 2024

²⁵ “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn’t life more than food, and your body more than clothing? ²⁶ Look at the birds. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren’t you far more valuable to him than they are?”

Matthew 6:25-26

In Loving Memory Of Jamie L. VanDervoort

Born

April 10, 1979
Rapid City, South Dakota

Died

July 11, 2024
Rapid City, South Dakota

Celebration of Life

Monday, July 22, 2024, at 10:00 a.m.

Open Bible Church
Rapid City, South Dakota

Officiant

Pastor Randy Brock

Musicians

Open Bible Worship Team

Musical Selections

“Amazing Grace” “I Can Only Imagine”
“Battle Belongs to the Lord” “Great Are You, Lord”

Pallbearers

Lynn Spring Justin Hanks Joel Hartman
Brandon Gatzke James Gatzke Ross Odde

Honorary Pallbearers

All Family and Friends

Final Resting Place

Bear Butte Cemetery at 1:30 p.m.
Sturgis, South Dakota