No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry towards tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever.

You'll see no reason to worry or question God
as to why you have lost me, no reason to say goodbye, It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile.

The love I've known is a very special part,
the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday.

No reason at all as you can see,
I'm with the Lord, He'll take care of me.

THE LIFE & LEGACY

Thomas B. Wilmer

Thomas Barry Wilmer, a longtime resident of Yonkers, New York entered this life on March 28, 1936 and departed this life on February 22, 2025 at his home in Georgia. He was born in Harlem Hospital in Harlem, New York to Isabelle and Arthur Wilmer Jr. As a child Tom lived in Runyon Heights and later relocated to Northwest Yonkers. He attended the Yonkers Public School System. At age 17, he enlisted in the United States Army and served abroad in Germany and Korea.

Upon receiving an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army, he began his career as a truck driver with The Harold Sirk and Diversified Food Distribution Companies. Tom began a second career with the Yonkers Public School System and continued employment for 10 years until retirement at age 67.

Tom met and married Rose May Friday. Their union welcomed two daughters, Mary and Thomasina. They spent 57 years together until she departed this life.

Tom loved his family and worked hard to care for and protect them. He enjoyed spending time with his brothers each weekend on Warburton Avenue catching upon life stories. Tom was a member of the Samuel H. Dow Post #1017. He spent many summers at cookouts with family and friends. He loved entertaining and hosting family and friends in his home. Holidays were always a special time where everyone gathered to enjoy a good meal. Tom loved reading the newspaper, watching sports, Westerns and later in life The Family Feud. Tom spent many holidays and weekends with his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Tom leaves to cherish his memory his two daughters Mary Wilmer of Sandy Springs, GA, Thomasina (John) Suttles of Austell, GA; additional survivors, Carey Hairston of Yonkers, NY and Nicole Hairston of Yonkers, NY; five grandchildren Dorinda (Fred) Harrison of Williamstown, NJ, Marcianna (Julius) Brooks of Milton, GA, Jonathan (Jhonel) Suttles of Montgomery Village, MD, Brandon Grant of Yonkers, NY, and Makai Grant of Yonkers, NY; six great grandchildren Marcus Brooks, Paige Harrison, Jasmine Brooks, Amariah Harrison, Gabriella Suttles and Aria Suttles; two brothers Kenneth Wilmer of Shelby, NC and Richard (Marjorie) Wilmer of Croton-on-Hudson, NY. He will also be remembered by a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, his brothers, George (Nunny) Wilmer and Arthur (Allie) Wilmer III, and sister Isabelle (Sparkle) Wilmer.
