

If You Could See Me Now

My prayers have all been answered.

I finally arrived.

The healing that had been delayed

Has now been realized.

No one's in a hurry;

There's no schedule to keep.

We're all enjoying Jesus,

Happily sitting at His feet.

If you could see me now,

I'm walking streets of gold.

If you could see me now,

I'm standing strong and whole.

If you could see me now,

You'd know I've seen Him face to face.

If you could see me now,

You'd know the pain is eased.

You wouldn't want me

To ever leave this place

If you could only see me now.

My plight and temporary trials

Have worked out for my good,

To know it brought Him glory

When I misunderstood.

Though I've had my sorrows,

They can never compare.

What Jesus has in store for me,

No language can share.

You wouldn't want me

To ever leave this perfect place,

If you could only see me now!

The Family's Message of Gratitude

The family of Missionary Luneal Savage Alexander would like to express our deepest appreciation to the many friends, neighbors and church members for the loving support you have given during her illness and ultimately, her transition. Your prayers, words of consolation, flowers, and countless acts of kindness, both seen and unseen, have given us the strength to accept God's will to make it through these difficult days. May God richly bless each of you who played a part and accept a warm "THANK YOU" from the bottom of our hearts.

Always remember that we love each of you!

~ The Savage-Alexander Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Services of your loved one. Our fondest hope is that all measures of assistance rendered your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

“Her Children Arise and Call Her Blessed” ~ Psalm 31:28

Missionary Luneal Savage Alexander, the daughter of Samuel Savage and Mable Townsend Savage Clarkston, was born December 17, 1951. She was a resident of Pinetta (Madison County), Florida.

Educated in the Lowndes County Public School System, Luneal was a 1969 graduate of Westside High School in Valdosta, Georgia.

Earlier in her life, Luneal confessed her belief in Jesus Christ, was baptized by faith, and promised to serve Him dutifully. As a dedicated member of Mt. Zion House of Prayer for 32 years, she demonstrated her love for the Lord by her faith, kindness, and steadfast devotion. Her unwavering spirit, unconditional love of family, and her living the Golden Rule made a profound impact on all who knew her. She was a loving mother, a beloved grandmother, a confident friend, and a Proverbs 31 virtuous woman of God.

Luneal was employed for many years at Crackin’ Good Bakery, but she also had interests in fashionable sewing and styling hair. Also, during her leisure time, she loved to garden and/or to find unique treasures at thrift shops and flea markets. She was especially proud of her collection of pig figurines. Her other pastime pleasures included watching Jeopardy, Let’s Make A Deal, The Price Is Right, and Family Feud and syndicated classic television westerns -- Gunsmoke, Wagon Train, and The Rifle Man.

Because Luneal Savage Alexander’s soul was anchored in the Lord, she had blessed peace with her Lord so near. Therefore, when He called her, she answered, for she was somewhere listening for her name. Surrounded by the mutual love of family, she willingly crossed from time into eternity on Saturday, November 9, 2024. It is well with her soul!

Luneal Savage Alexander blessed her loved ones’ hearts with her life, her love, and her legacy. Cherishing her precious memories and missing her until they meet again someday are her loving children: Angela (Jim) Wright of Valdosta, GA, Clayton (Veronica) Washington of Dumfries, VA, Yolanda Washington of Valdosta, GA, William (Carolyn) Alexander of Quitman, GA, and Nathaniel (Vanessa) Alexander, Jr. of Jennings, FL; siblings: Ralph (Teresa) Townsend of Bellville, FL, Willie (Magaline /“Maggie”) Roberson, and Robert (Patricia) Savage, all of Valdosta, GA, Paul (Mary Alice) Savage of Lantana, FL, Rosemary (Daniel Wayne) Savage of Valdosta, GA, Cheryl Savage of Pinetta, FL, and Falesia (Dale / “Buddy”) Wright of Boston, GA; an aunt: Mary Townsend; sisters-in-law: Ada Savage, Mary (Eddie) Luster of Madison, FL, Ola Alexander of Hanson, FL, and Barbara Philpot; brother-in-law: BJ Alexander; grandchildren: Keyerra Washington, Jamal Wright, Destinee Wright, Jasmin Reid, Stephanie Siplin, Craig Williams, Sr., Rachel Wilson, Sheneka Alexander, and Shauntae Alexander; great-grandchildren: Jahel Wright, Malachi Wright, Fayth Wright, Jamal Wright, Jr., Amari Rodbhajon, Da’Moni Brinson, Siyon Brinson, Jermain Randolph, Cortez Weatherspoon, Jamerius Smith, Malaysia Walton, and Shamillya Alexander; devoted friend: Shelia Howell; godchildren: Kevin Mitchell, Willie Gillyard, Shardesha Johnson, Augustus Brinson, Malvenia Hines Fleming, Melvin Hines, and Lydia Tooley; together with many other sorrowing relatives and loving friends.

Loved ones who preceded Luneal Savage Alexander in eternal rest are her beloved parents: Samuel Savage and Mabel Townsend Savage Clarkston, her loving husband of 32 years: Nathaniel Alexander, Sr., her much-loved daughter: Janice Alexander; as well as her dearly loved siblings: Charles Townsend, Martha Stewart, Samuel Savage, Jr. and James Savage.
