Life Reflections

Elizabeth Mayrant Bracy, affectionately known as “Stanky” and “Liz,” entered eternal rest on January 28, 2026. She was born on December 1, 1960, and lived a life defined by love, devotion, kindness, and quiet strength.

Elizabeth shared 45 beautiful years of marriage with her beloved husband, Eliza Bracy, until his passing. Their marriage was built on loyalty, faith, and a deep, unshakable bond that carried them through life together.

She was a proud and loving mother to Elijah Bracy and Leary Bracy, both of whom preceded her in death; James Bracy (Rachel), Cassandra Bracy, Yalonda Bracy and Timothy Bracy. She also grieved the loss of her grandson, Na'reese Bracy, who preceded her in death. Elizabeth held a very special place in her heart for her grandson, Jamarree Frierson, who was like a son to her in every way.

Her greatest joy in life was her grandchildren, whom she loved dearly: Armonie Bracy, Janiyah Green, Yakhijah Archie, Jalayah Bracy, Elijah Bracy, Elan Johnson, Ayden Johnson, Timothy Bracy Jr., and Yana Mari Bracy. One great grandson Jasiah McBride. Nothing brought her more happiness than being surrounded by them. Her love for her grandchildren was deep, constant, and unconditional.

Elizabeth dedicated many years of her life to hard work and service. She was employed at Kroger for over 15 years and Kmart for over 15 years, where she was known for her warm spirit and kind heart.

She was one of nine siblings and leaves behind two loving siblings, Julia Mickens and Edward Mayrant. She also leaves behind her in-laws Billy (Samantha) Bracey and Sabrina Myers.

Elizabeth will be remembered as a loving and steady wife, a devoted mother, and one of the kindest souls anyone could ever meet. Her home was filled with love, comfort, and care, and her presence brought peace to those around her.
