

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Beretha Ann JONES-POUNCY

JULY 26, 1945 - FEBRUARY 2, 2026

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

John 14:1-3 KJV

Boretha Ann JONES-POUNCY

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day."

2 Timothy 4:7-8

Born on July 26, 1945, in Weeks Island, LA, Boretha was the beloved daughter of Ethon and Ella Louise Jones and grew up in Four Corners, LA. She graduated from Willow Street High School in Franklin, LA, in 1963. She later moved to Houston, TX, where she married Rev. Earnest Pouncy Jr. on March 15, 1969. Together, they built a home grounded in love, prayer, and unwavering devotion to God. She retired from Southwestern Bell in the late 1990s. Tragically, her husband, Rev. Earnest Pouncy Jr., departed this life on September 11, 1998.

As a mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, Boretha nurtured others with gentle wisdom, a listening ear, and a heart that reflected Christ's love. She was an active member of St. Peter Catholic Church in Four Corners, LA, until moving to Texas, where she was later baptized into the Baptist faith. She later became a devoted member of Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church in Houston, TX, under the leadership of the late Rev. Earnest Burnside, and continued to serve faithfully under Pastor Kenneth W. Issac until she was physically unable to attend regularly.

Boretha was not only a devoted friend and minister's wife but also a faithful servant in many areas of ministry. She was a senior choir member, a teacher of both the Senior Mission and Sunday School, and the president of the Seniors on the Go group. Her dedication extended to the Pastors' Aide Committee and the Women of Virtue Mission, where her leadership and compassion touched many lives. Her influence reached far beyond the church walls. Boretha served as the treasurer of the Minister Wives Association and volunteered her time to senior activities at the Hiram Clarke Multi-Service Center and the Houston Public Library, continuing her lifelong commitment to service and community.

Boretha leaves behind a beautiful legacy in her family: her daughter, Penny Pouncy-Taylor (John Taylor), Sharon Pouncy, and Linda Pouncy (stepdaughters), and her sons, Earnest Pouncy (Raushanah Pouncy) and Christopher Pouncy. She is cherished by five granddaughters—Terencia Pouncy, Brittani Cooper, Yasmin Martinez, Destiny Pouncy (Mother Yanira Rodriguez), and Khalia Chapell—and five grandsons—Jason Pouncy, Anthony Pouncy, Caleb Pouncy, Brandon Furlough, and Joseph Furlough. She is also survived by four great granddaughters—Asia Coleman, Brielle Cooper, Samiyah Williams-Pouncy, and Aaliyah Chapell—and five great grandsons—Jayron Hill, Kentrell Francis, Ryan Pouncy, Juwelz Price, and Kyrin Chapell. Her sisters, Ella Mae Stacy and Shirley Jones-Purvey (Robert Purvey), along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, will forever cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ethon and Ella Louise Jones; her beloved husband, Earnest Pouncy Jr.; and her four sisters: Barbara McFarlin, Orena Benson, Ethel Jolivette, and Hilda Mae Colbert.

Though she will be deeply missed, we rejoice to know she is now in the presence of her Savior—free from pain, wrapped in peace, and filled with everlasting joy.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." – Psalm 116:15

EXPRESSIONS OF LOVE

Loving Daughter

My mother, Boretha, was my first friend, my safe place, and the woman who taught me what strength wrapped in love truly looks like. She guided me with patience, prayed for me without ceasing, and believed in me even when I struggled to believe in myself. Her wisdom shaped me, her faith covered me, and her love carried me through every season of my life. I will forever honor her by living the values she lived so gracefully—kindness, compassion, and unwavering faith in God. Though my heart aches, I am grateful for every moment, every lesson, and every prayer she poured into me. Her love will remain the light I follow.

Tribute to our grandmother

Boretha, you were our best friend, our safe place, our heart's home. In every season of our lives, we never had to walk alone. You prayed for us when we were hurting, you believed in us when we doubted, and you loved us with a strength that never wavered, never questioned, never ran out. Every Sunday morning beside you, every whispered prayer you lifted up, became a covering over our lives—

A reminder that God placed you in our corner on purpose. Right or wrong, you stood with us, guiding us with gentle truth and unconditional love. And though you've gone to be with the Lord, your faith, your warmth, your spirit will forever live in each of us. We will carry your love like a light that never dims— because you weren't just our grandmother, Boretha... you were our person.

Your Loving Sons

To be her sons was to be loved fiercely and completely. Mom believed in us when we doubted ourselves and pushed us to rise above every challenge. She showed us what courage looks like, what faith sounds like, and what unconditional love feels like. She was gentle when we needed comfort and strong when we needed direction.

Losing her leaves a space nothing can fill, but her love remains in every part of who we are. We thank God for blessing us with a mother like her.

Your loving sisters

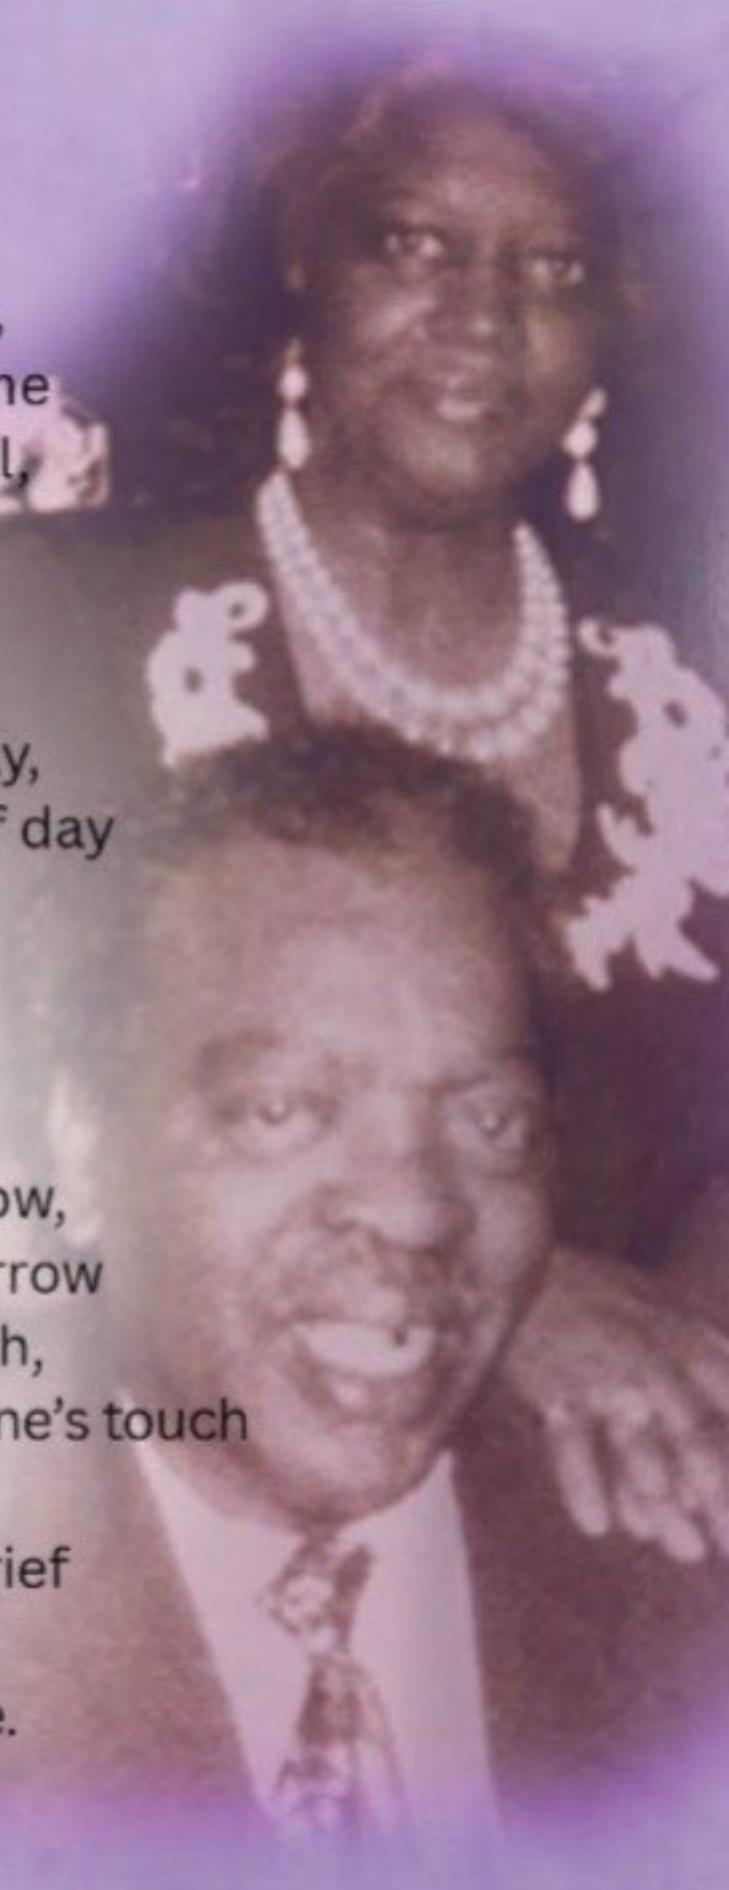

Sisterhood is a bond created by God, and with Boretha, that bond was precious. She was thoughtful, compassionate, and always ready to lend a helping hand. We shared laughter, tears, prayers, and countless moments that shaped our lives.

Though our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in knowing she has received her heavenly reward. The love we shared will remain with us forever.

Reunited with my loving Husband

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Live Each Day To The Fullest

Yesterday's troubles are written in sand,
brushed out of existences by God's own hand.
The things of the future our hearts may fear
can all be resolved when tomorrow is here.

Out of a lifetime, these hours alone—
the hours of TODAY—are completely our own.

So as each sun is setting,
there's a reason to say,

“THANKS, LORD, FOR YOUR GIFTS—
ABOVE ALL, FOR THIS DAY.”

Love,
Boretha Ann Jones-Pouncy
