

Jason Stormo

In loving memory

Footprints In The Sand

*One night a man had a dream.
He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Across the sky flashed scenes from his life.
For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand;
one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.
When the last scene of his life flashed before him,
he looked back at the footprints in the sand.
He noticed that many times along the path of his life
there was only one set of footprints.
He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.
This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
you'd walk with me all the way.
But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."
The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child,
I love you and I would never leave you.
During your times of trial and suffering,
when you see only one set of footprints...
it was then that I carried you."*

Jesus

SERVICES IN CARE OF
Furness Funeral Home

Gregory E. Furness
Clark, South Dakota
www.furnessfuneralhome.com

Jason D. Stormo of Watertown, SD, age 47, passed away peacefully in a Sioux Falls hospital surrounded by family, Monday, November 22, 2021.

He was born Jason David Stormo on October 28, 1974 at Watertown, SD, the son of Gregg and Sharon (Hagen) Stormo. Jason attended Clark Schools graduating from Clark High School in 1993. Following school, Jason worked for various businesses including the Watertown Public Opinion, Arby's and was currently employed by Jimmy Johns and The Argus Leader. He was a avid fan of the WWE Wrestling and even as a junior in high school, a hobby of remembering everyone's license plate in Clark. Jason loved cars, having several over the years, being very fussy in the way they looked!

On September 24, 2016 he was united in marriage to Lynnette Benson of Watertown at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Clark. He had met the love of his life in 2010 in Watertown and the two courted until their marriage. Even though they had no children of their own, Jason took a liking to Lynnette's sister's boy Mason, as his buddy.

In his caring way, Jason had signed a donor card, which upon his death anything that could be used for others to live would be donated. After Jason's brain death on Monday the 22nd, Life Source was contacted and Jason became a donor so others could live.

Preceding him in death were his grandparents.

Survivors include his wife Lynnette of Watertown, parents, Gregg and Sharon Stormo of Clark, sisters, Kerri (Jeff) Yexley and Kristi (Lonnie Swanson) Stormo of Clark, an aunt, Clea (Bob) Urevig of Watertown, great aunt Clara Ness father and mother in-law Jimmy and Jayne Benson, sisters in-law Kimberly Benson and Lisa (Paul) McIntire, brother in-law Greg Benson, nieces and nephews and 1 great niece.

In lieu of flowers, memorials would be appreciated to the St. Paul Lutheran Church Sunday School Fund or the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN.

Celebrating the Life of Jason Stormo

Services from

St. Paul Lutheran Church, Clark, South Dakota
Tuesday, November 30, 2021 1:30 PM

Officiant

Pastor Jody Peterson

Music

Wendy Christman—Pianist

"On Eagles Wings" "How Great Thou Art"
"Wind Beneath My Wings" "Peace in Christ"
"Jesus Loves Me" "Kumbaya, My Lord"

Following the service, please join the family for sub sandwiches & chips, furnished by Jimmy Johns, immediately after the service, in the church basement.

The family of Jason Stormo thanks you for your presence here today, for your thoughts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown to them.

Casketbearers

Tyler Stormo	Michael Stormo	Eric Stormo
Jeff Bren	Paul McIntire	Greg Benson

Interment

Mount Hope Cemetery, Watertown, South Dakota