

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.

I'm following the path God has chosen for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joys:

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.

Oh, yes, these things I, too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;

Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full; I savored much:

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief;

Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.

God wanted me now—He has set me free.

Jessie James Peacock

DECEMBER 22, 1934 - JULY 23, 2025

“The Lord Is My Shepherd; I Shall Not Want”
~Psalm 23:1

Born on December 22, 1934, Jessie James Peacock was the early Christmas blessing presented to Darbine James Peacock and Kathleen Savage Peacock, as well as the rest of the family. He grew up with his siblings in the County Camp Road community better known as “The Big Valley” in Madison, Florida. He was a lifelong resident of this area.

Jessie accepted Christ as his Savior during his early years. He was a member of Mt. Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church of Madison where he also was a member of the Board of Trustees.

Jessie was educated in the Madison County Public School System. He later enlisted in the United States Army where he proudly served his country and achieved the rank of Specialist 4th Class (E-4). At the completion of his tour of duty, he was honorably discharged at Ft. Jackson, South Carolina. Jessie returned to Madison where he began his career as a highly skilled auto mechanic at John Cherry’s Service Station. Years later, he was employed at Coleburn’s Tire and Body Shop. He was well known and highly respected by his customers because of his reputation for identifying and repairing their vehicles’ issues with accuracy. Jessie was also a “no-nonsense” school bus driver who also loved looking out for his young passengers as he safely transported them to their destinations.

Jessie felt at peace outdoors because he enjoyed being in the fresh air and sunshine. He loved spending his time working on small jobs or pastime activities that kept him busy all day, every day. However, during his leisure moments, he felt exhilarated watching automotive race cars as well as watching and cheering his favorite football and baseball teams on to victory. Some of his other memorable enjoyments included his dining in at O’Neal’s Country Buffet and having his 90th birthday celebration at Hooter’s.

Jessie was the loving and caring patriarch, brother, uncle, daddy, cousin, caregiver, and friend to all. He unconditionally loved his family and would help them or anyone else at any time - whenever and in whatever way he could.

Jessie James Peacock had blessed peace with his Lord so near. He had a little talk with Jesus and knew everything was all right. On Wednesday, July 23, 2025, in a moment, and in the twinkling of an eye, he quietly transitioned from labor to rest eternally with the Lord.
