

Mark Larry Isaak

Mark Larry Isaak was born December 8, 1963, to Larry and Phyllis Isaak. He attended Lead High School and graduated in the class of 1982. Mark worked at Homestake Gold Mine as a contract miner and later as a driller at Peabody Energy Powder River Basin.

Mark, known to his friends as "Sparky" touched the lives of everyone who he knew. He was a loving father of four wonderful children and a grandfather to four beautiful grandchildren, whom he adored. Mark enjoyed the outdoors, taking a morning drive through the Black Hills, and loved watching Nascar.

Mark, 50, Spearfish, passed away July 6, 2014, after a courageous battle with multiple sclerosis.

Survivors include his parents, Larry and Phyllis; son, Jaaron (Maranda) Isaak; daughters, Brooklyn Isaak (Josh Ryan), Tonisha Isaak (Dustin Mund), and Tierney Isaak; four grandchildren, Aliyah, Jaxson, Kaitlynn, and Brecklynn; a brother, John (Karen) Isaak; two nieces; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins. He also has a group of very special friends.

Mark was preceded in death by his grandparents; uncle, Merlyn Isaak; and one cousin, Kelly Irion.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

1963 ~ 2014

*The family invites you to join them for fellowship and lunch at the Deadwood VFW following the memorial service.
We thank you for your presence and condolences.*

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.*
