

Celebrating the Life of ## APPRECIATION

On behalf of the family we wish to express our sincerest thanks and gratitude for your support and presence today.

Weller
FUNERAL HOME
Cherishing Memories, Celebrating Life

Sharon J. Gleeson
September 9, 1939 ~ December 7, 2024

Sharon J. Gleeson was born Sharon Joyce Ebel on September 9, 1939 to Oscar and Edna (Fischer) Ebel at Eureka, South Dakota. She went to school at Artas, Ipswich, Eureka, and Miller, South Dakota. She graduated from Miller High School in 1957. She then moved to Huron with her mom and sister.

Sharon married James A. Sorenson on January 14, 1961. She then married Sydney O. Gleeson on April 1, 1967. Sharon did a lot of babysitting, cleaned houses and worked many years in restaurants as a waitress, hostess, and dishwasher.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Dawn Sorenson of Sioux Falls; two granddaughters, Ashley Sorenson and Jerika Hansen of Mitchell; three great-grandchildren Auytmn, Alyse, and Avrie; nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews; and special friend Nikole Jenks.

She was preceded in death by her father, Oscar Ebel, mother Edna Peck, stepfather Clifford Peck; all her grandparents; her daughter, Sheena Ranee Edna Sorenson; her son, Christopher Sorenson; and her sister, Sheila Nelson of Huron.

In Loving Memory

Sharon J. Gleeson

September 9, 1939 ~ December 7, 2024

FUNERAL SERVICE

1 p.m., Wednesday, December 11, 2024
Welter Funeral Home
Huron, South Dakota
Pastor Aaron Mudge~ Officiant

MUSIC

“Go Rest High On That Mountain” by Vince Gill
“Amazing Grace” by Alan Jackson

CASKETBEARERS

Sharon's Family and Friends

INTERMENT

St. Martin Cemetery
Huron, South Dakota