

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When you come to the end of the road;
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!

Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.

For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And burrow your sorrows in doing good deeds.

The Family would like to express their heartfelt thanks to all who helped us in our time of need. Everyone who came to visit dad, everyone who said a prayer and offered a kind word. We could never have done this without you. A special thanks to Aunt Liz for helping with dad's care, to Sarah and Wanda with home health who made everything at home easier to bear.

Die stunde kam uns viel zu frie

In Loving Memory of
Joseph P. Glanzer
January 25, 1952 - April 24, 2024

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years
I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So, if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart
You'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."

Song: Tim Waldner (Clark)

Service: Matthew Kleinsasser (Camrose)

As the angels rejoice and welcome him home to heaven, he will be greatly missed by wife Katherine, his 5 children and 11 grandchildren: Jolene (Jacob) and their children Jaycee and Dallas of Hillcrest Colony, Geneva (Wayne) and their children Ava, Kade, and Kobe of Millbrook Colony, Jeremy of Sioux Falls, SD, Ryan (Michelle) and their children Oakley, Max, Charlie, and Rowan of Sioux Falls, SD, Terry (Phoebe) and their children Jeremy and Heidi of Clark Colony.

Also mourning his death are his 3 brothers and 2 sisters Paul (Judy) Mayfield, Sam (Geneva) Cowiche, WA, Marion (Tim) Springcreek, John (Linda) Clark and Rachel Clark, and many more friends and family.

Welcoming him home to heaven are his parents Paul and Susie, four sisters Maria (in infancy) Dora, Katie, and Sara, his father and mother in law, brother in laws Andy, Jerry, and Fred.

Joseph P. Glanzer passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 24, 2024 at home with family by his side. Joe was born on January 25, 1952 to Paul and Susie Glanzer at Jamesville Colony. He was baptized upon confession of his faith on April 11, 1976. He married the love of his life Katherine Kleinsasser on May 9, 1976. Together they were blessed with 48 years of marriage and 5 beautiful children that he loved with all of his heart.

Joe served the community in a number of positions over the years: he was a dairyman for 26 years; which he enjoyed immensely, he helped with the turkeys for a time; working alongside his brother John; which created a special bond between the two. In his later years he worked at Dakotaland with his son Terry until his health declined in February of this year.

Dad's friendly personality won the hearts of many and the last 3 months those friends brightened his days with visits, phone calls, and prayers. Dad had a special bond with each of his children and his phone calls will be dearly missed.

Dad, we just want to tell you how much we love you and thank you for always being there for us...through the years if there was something you thought we needed you tried to get it for us...spoiled us, YES...spending those last few weeks around you has been such a blessing. We feel God gave us such a gift...even though it's so hard thinking we won't have you around any longer. God was so good as to plan this where we get all those special moments with you. We just know that you'll be there waiting to spend more time with us. Just know we appreciate each and every thing you've ever done for us. Fly high with the angels Dad, we love you to the moon and back.

Ich habe einen guten Kampf gekämpft

Ich habe den Lauf vollendet,

Ich habe Glauben gehalten;

Hinfort ist mir beigelegt die Krone der Gerechtigkeit

welche mir der Herr an jenem Tage, der gerechte

richter geben wird, nicht mir aber allein, sondern auch allen, die seine Erscheinung lieb haben.

2 Timotheus 4, 7-8
