

Sidney James Pulaski

Heaven has a new Elvis singer. Sidney Pulaski (Daddy-o to James) passed away on December 4, 2023, at Ft. Meade, SD, VA. after a courageous battle with a brain injury. He was surrounded by family. He grew up in Michigan and Wisconsin. He moved quite a bit with the military but made his "home" South Dakota. Sid is remembered as being an avid singer, working on cars, and traveling as much as he could. He was a free spirit and passed that on to his children. He liked to wander about talking to anyone who would listen, because he was just that kind of guy and he never met a stranger. - Melissa. He was the kind of guy who talked to everyone in a restaurant and was happy to help all. No one was left out.

He is preceded in death by his father, Sidney Pulaski; mother, Hildreth Pulaski, and six siblings. He is survived by his wife, Mary Ann Pulaski; daughter, Christine Pulaski; son, James Pulaski; son, Lawrence Pulaski (Ashleigh); and daughter, Melissa Pulaski; his grandchildren, James' child, Mary Floyd (Kyle), Jacqueline Beer (Mike) and family, Christine's child, Mattias Didriksen (Arina), Melissa's two children, Lawrence's children, Harrison Pulaski, and Annika Pulaski. He is also survived by his sister, Judy Pulaski; sister-in-law, Catherine Luedtke; niece, Kaylene (Justin) James; Kaylene's children, Nala Maa, Nijama Maat, and Hiawatha Maat; his nephew, Glen Cychosz; Meriam and their children, Rebecca Cychosz, Ardin Cychosz, and Ricky Cychosz.

"The world is a little quieter, and hopefully heaven is a little louder now."
- Lawrence

In Loving Memory Of

Sidney James Pulaski

October 25, 1940 ~ December 4, 2023

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly
trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.*

*Do not stand by my grave and weep:
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*
