

In the Footsteps of Love:

A TRIBUTE TO NICHOLUS GERALD TERRY
1965-2025

"Then My Living Shall Not Be in Vain"

*In the quiet heart of Greenville's grace,
A gentle soul held time in place.
Nick, "Baby Boy," with hands well-worn,
By love and labor, life was adorned.*

*A son of Jesse and Issa B. Ware,
Raised in values, strong and fair.
With every broom sweep, every tool he gripped,
He showed where faith and purpose slipped—
Not into words, but into deeds,
Planting kindness like quiet seeds.*

*The halls of school knew his name,
Mr. Nick—of humble fame.
Not just a custodian, but a guide,
With laughter and pride walking beside
Little feet and young bright eyes,
He lifted dreams where hope would rise.*

*He gave not for glory, but from the heart,
A helping hand, a neighbor's part.
Fixing cars, or grilling food,
His presence warmed each room he'd intrude.
In horseshoes thrown or football cheer,
You always knew when Nick was near.*

*A husband true, for twenty years strong,
With Sharhonda, he found where hearts belong.
A father, a brother, an uncle, a friend,
His circle of love would never end.
Each cookout, each holiday, every game—
Was better because he came.*

*He's gone now where the faithful go,
To streets of peace where kind men glow.
But he did not leave us empty or lost,
He taught us how to love—no matter the cost.
And if you listen in the hush of day,
You'll hear his laughter not far away.*

*So rest, dear Nick, your race is run,
You've touched the world, and then some.
And in every kind thing that we do—
We'll remember and give thanks for you.

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The Family of Nicholas Gerald Terry wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude to those who have offered their prayers, support, and well wishes during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your love and strength which, along with the strength of God, has helped to sustain us through our sorrow. May God continue to bless you!

We take comfort in I Corinthians 2:9...

"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."

- The Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Services of your loved one. Our fondest hope is that all measures of assistance rendered your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

Life Story

NICHOLUS GERALD TERRY
FEBRUARY 8, 1965 – MAY 1, 2025
“BABY BOY” I “NICK”

“THEN MY LIVING SHALL NOT BE IN VAIN”

NICHOLUS GERALD TERRY, known as “Nick” and “Baby Boy,” was the youngest son of Jesse Terry and Issa B. Ware Terry. Born on February 8, 1965, he grew up in the Lovett Community of Greenville (Madison County), Florida. His upbringing emphasized love and respect for adults, consideration for others, and a strong work ethic. Nick was a lifelong resident of the Greenville Community.

Nicholus was family oriented. He was a loving husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin, and son-in-love. He loved everyone unconditionally and genuinely enjoyed the occasions they shared. To ensure their time together was enjoyable and memorable, he would go the extra mile by lending a helping hand and a willing heart.

Educated in the Madison County public school system, Nick later became a dedicated Madison County School District employee with 31 years of experience as a custodian at Greenville Primary School and Madison County Central School. His job performance reflected his parents’ teaching, “Do an honest day’s work to earn honest pay.” He did that and more because he loved encouraging the students and they loved giving a shoutout to Mr. Nick. In addition to his career job, Nick worked in maintenance at the Red Onion Grill. He also helped to repair vehicles and could be counted on to do other odd jobs for neighbors.

One who loved to keep himself busy, Nick also looked forward to settling down during football season to enjoy Miami Hurricanes games. He proudly supported his team as their #1 fan. Also, because he constantly perfected his horseshoe tosses, he often challenged others to join him for a game.

Having fulfilled his purpose on earth, Nicholus Gerald Terry answered the Master’s call on Thursday, May 1, 2025. His living was not in vain.

Nicholus Gerald Terry’s life was a legacy of purpose, generosity, and endless love. His memory will forever remain in the hearts of his loved ones and all others who knew him. Those who will celebrate the years of his earthly life are his loving wife of nearly 20 years, Sharhonda Howard Terry of Greenville, FL; sons, Ray McCullough and Antonio McCullough, both of Madison, FL; daughters, Keita Crumity of Madison, FL, and Annaleisha McCullough of Detroit, MI; brothers, Barry Terry of Monticello, FL, Frank (Nancy) Terry of Arcadia, FL, Jesse Terry, Jr., of Killeen, TX, and Ernest Brooks (regarded as a brother) of Greenville, FL; sister, Yolanda (Billy) Hatten of Monticello, FL; brothers-in-law, Antonio Hall of Lamont, FL, Thomas (Britni) Howard of Tallahassee, FL, Terrance Howard of Lamont, FL, and Brodenia Hampton of Madison, FL; sister-in-love, Natara Howard and Tabitha Howard, both of Thomasville, GA, Tameka Howard of Decatur, GA, and Janice Miller Terry of Valdosta, GA; mother-in love, Deborah Howard Hampton of Greenville, FL; along with countless other sorrowing relatives and sympathetic friends.

Loved ones who have preceded Nicholus “Baby Boy” in death were his parents, Jesse Terry and Issa B. Ware Terry; brothers, Archie Terry and Pallie Terry; and sisters, Victoria Terry and Naomi “Dot” Ware Williams.
