

Out In The Fields With God

The little cares that fretted me
I lost them yesterday,
Among the fields above the sea,
Among the winds at play,
Among the lowing of the herds,
The rustling of the trees,
Among the singing of the birds,
The humming of the bees.

The foolish fears of what might happen.
I cast them all away
Among the clover-scented grass,
Among the new-mown hay,
Among the husking of the corn,
Where drowsy poppies nod
Where ill thoughts die and good are born--
Out in the fields with God

In Loving Memory

Timothy Schlechter

January 21, 1961 — September 26, 2024

Tim was born January 21, 1961, to Corliss and Elizabeth “Betty” (Wernsmann) Schlechter. Tim attended St. Liborius Catholic grade school and Polo High School, graduating with the class of 1980.

Tim and his significant other, Betty Pelton, enjoyed camping, fishing and being outdoors. They enjoyed spending time with family and friends. In high school, Tim had a passion for basketball. He could be found shooting hoops in front of the garage.

Tim was known for his hard work and the need to stay busy. He worked many years of road construction. After becoming ill, Tim’s comment was “I need to get back to work.” He didn’t have time to waste when there was work to be done. He went for a walk every day. Betty said that, “it didn’t matter how cold it was outside, he was walking.”

Tim was a HUGE Minnesota Vikings fan. So of course, his favorite color was purple. Tim would tell you the only vehicle to drive was a FORD. He was a lifelong fan of “Vikings and Fords.”

He was preceded in death by his parents, Corliss (2004) and Betty (2023) Schlechter; one brother, Charles “Chuck” (2020) Schlechter; and both paternal sets of grandparents.

He is survived by his significant other, Betty Pelton; Betty’s children, Troy (Spring) Metter and Tanya Metter; nine grandchildren; and his siblings, Dan (Lisa) Schlechter of Centuria, WI, Dean (Stephanie) Schlechter of Faulkton, SD, Corey Schlechter of Sioux Falls, SD, Kevin (Sandy) Schlechter of Pipestone, MN and Lorie (Wendell Hendrickson) Schlechter of McVile, ND; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.
