

God saw that she was getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
So he put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes, we watched her suffer.
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating.
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes "the best".

Loretta June Olson was born June 12, 1936, on a farm near Carpenter, South Dakota, to Edward P.W. and Mary (Kleinsasser) Hofer. The family moved upon her father's passing, eventually settling in Huron where she grew up. She attended school in Sioux Falls, earning a beautician's license of which she maintained the rest of her life, cutting and styling hair at her home and at the homes of her customers.

In June of 1954, Loretta married Arliegh Jenson, and had three children to this union, Randall, Regg and Earl Jenson. They later divorced. She later met Glenn D. Olson, and the two wed in September of 1969. The couple resided in Huron, raising their three sons who Glenn loved as his own.

Loretta was a dedicated person who wore many hats in life. She worked as a CNA at the St. John's Hospital in Huron, now the HRMC, before working in the community support center for ten years. The latter part of her career saw her working in home health until 2018, when she was 82. Loretta continued to live at home until July of 2025, when she entered assisted living in Redfield. She lived there until she went peacefully with her Lord.

She also had many hobbies, such as maintaining her rabbit doll collection, flower gardening, completing crosswords and word searches, and playing bingo. She also loved people, and enjoyed visiting with those in her life.

Loretta is survived by her son, Regg (Jodi) Jenson; thirteen grandchildren, Maria, Jennifer (Chris), Brandon (Ashley), RJ, Kali, Jacob, Ashley, Sarah, William, Tara, Tiffany, Nathan and Shyanne; many great-grandchildren including, Kori, Noah, Karli, Logan, Hayden, Joseph, Piper, Johee, Madtey, Arliegh, Alicia, Shelby and Lydia; her great-great-grandchildren, Dimitri, and Esme; eight nieces, Theresa, Janet, Valerie, Mary, Donna, Linda, Darla Spelbring and Dawn (Peaches) Banks; her nephew, Darven (Herb) Spelbring; and her sister, Janice (Janey) Spelbring, all Spelbrings of Asheville, North Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her siblings, James Hofer, Violet Hofer and Marjorie Gunderson; her sons, Randall and Earl Jenson; her grandson, Wayne Jenson; as well as her close friends, Arliegh Jenson and Glenn Olson.

Loretta Olson, 89, of Redfield and formerly of Huron, passed away peacefully on October 18, 2025, at Community Memorial Hospital Avera in Redfield.
