

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

L. Janet Stanfield was born June 11, 1935, to Dean and Grace (Butts) Stanfield, near Artesian, South Dakota. She grew up in the Artesian area and attended a one-room country school through the 8th grade. She continued her education at Artesian High School, where she enjoyed participating in the Junior and Senior plays. Janet graduated from high school in 1953.

Janet then moved to Huron, where she met Phillip Armour. They married and had 4 children. They later divorced.

In 1980, Janet married Ernest Bobeldyke. They made their home in Huron. Ernie passed away in 1993.

She loved to keep busy and was a workaholic. Janet was employed at Randall Foods, now Coborn's, in the bakery department for 32 years, retiring in 1999. Later in 1999, she started working at K-Mart until it closed. She volunteered at Helping Hands Thrift Store and at Huron Regional Medical Center.

Janet was an active member of the Riverview United Methodist Church, where she attended Thursday morning bible study, served on the communion committee and was a member of the 4th Happening ladies group.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Ernie; one son-in-law, Jim Bobeldyke; two grandchildren, CJ Armour and Corey Armour; and her siblings, Eldon Stanfield, Ralph Stanfield, Bruce Stanfield, Robert Stanfield, Donna Scheele, Alice Joy and Helen Estes.

Grateful for having shared in her life are her four children, Clyde (Deb McKittrick) Armour of Huron, Cindy Bobeldyke of Huron, Tim Armour of Nebraska and Laurie (Ron) Roy of Huron; eleven grandchildren, Jamie (Ben) Warrey of Madison, Alan (Heather) Bobeldyke of Huron, Mandi (Brandon) Buker of Nebraska, Travis (Tasha) Lee of Huron, Katy Armour of Nebraska, Dustin Armour of Nebraska, Dillon (Johanna) Armour of Nebraska, Cody (Teah) Armour of Arkansas, Casey Armour of Huron, Kori McKittrick-Davis of Huron and John Armour of Denver, Colorado; ten great-grandchildren; one sister, Betty Seter of Boise, Idaho; and many nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great-nieces, grandnephews and grandnieces that she loved very much.
