

Larry Lum Williams

In Loving Memory Of

Larry was born in Worland, WY, on February 16, 1942, to Roy and Leura Williams. He worked for various school districts as a maintenance man and various other jobs from construction to oil fields. He was raised hunting and fishing in the Big Horn Mountains and that is where his love laid until his passing.

He married Joann Rieker on February 28, 1965, in Casper, WY. Together they lived in various places, spending 16 years in Sundance, WY, and eventually moving to Deadwood, SD, where Larry worked as a cook for many years. Later they moved to Newell, SD, and enjoyed retirement together.

Larry was very active in his family and loved each one of them. Larry was an avid fisherman. He made sure to teach all his grandchildren how to fish and made sure to take them fishing on many occasions. Larry loved to sing, "You are my Sunshine" and "Here comes Peter Cottontail" to all of his grandchildren. Larry was always willing to help anyone in need.

Peter Cottontail

*Here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hoppin' down the bunny trail,
Hippity, hoppity, hippity, hoppity,
Easter's on its way.*

*Bringin' every girl and boy
Baskets full of Easter joy,
Things to make your Easter
Bright and gay.*

*He's got jelly beans for Tommy,
Colored eggs for sister Sue,
There's an orchid for your Mommy
And an Easter bonnet, too. Oh'*

*Here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hoppin' down the bunny trail,
Hippity hoppity, hippity, hoppity,
Happy Easter day.*

*Look at him hop and listen to him say:
"Try to do the things you should."
Maybe if you're extra good,
He'll roll lots of Easter eggs your way.*

*You'll wake up on Easter morning
And you'll know that he was there
When you find those choc'late bunnies
That he's hiding ev'rywhere.*

*Oh! here comes Peter Cottontail,
Hoppin' down the bunny trail,
Hippity, hoppity, hippity, hoppity,
Happy Easter day.*
