To Our Mother

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me
Place them in my Mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Loving you forever,

To Our Sister

Come With Me

God saw her getting tired,,
A cure was not to be
He wrapped her in his loving arms
And whispered "Come with me."
She suffered much in silence,
Her spirit did not bend.
She face her pain with courage,
Until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us
But her fight was not in vain,
God took her to His loving home
And freed her from the pain.

Always in our Hearts
Your sisters and Brothers

Life Reflections

Jesus said, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me though he were dead, yet shall he live.”
John 11:25

In the shadow of a calm and peaceful night, Our Heavenly Father dispatched the angel of death to retrieve his faithful servant “Cassie” to bring her home to rest.

Cassie Mae Hunter Moore, the daughter of the late James Milton Hunter and Olivia Montgomery Hunter was born October 22, 1960 in Sumter, SC.

Cassie attended Mayewood High School of Sumter, SC and was a member of the graduating class of 1978. Her love for children led her to opening her very own at home daycare facility. She was a blessing to many families throughout her lifetime. She enjoyed worshipping at Truly Committed Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Al Smiling.

Her life has been stilled and her soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sickness and sorrow on Friday, January 30, 2026 at her residence surrounded by her dear loved ones.

Cassie was a natural nurturer. She opened her heart and home to anyone in need. Upon the passing of her mother, she immediately took on the responsibility and motherly role to her three younger siblings, Sandra, Anthony and Michael.

She leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memories, four children, Eugenia Nicole Moore, Olivia Monique Moore, Travis Antwone Moore and Darius Lamont Moore, all of Sumter, SC; seven grandchildren, Toriana Kennedy, Ny’Forn Lightly, Jasmine Smith, Kansas Moore, all of Sumter, SC.
