Obituary

Brother Lovie Johnson was born October 24, 1937 in Skipperville, AL to the late Algertha Butler and Herbert Johnson. He later moved to Ozark, AL with his Aunt Mozell Clark, whom he loved dearly.

Lovie became a Master Plumber and Electrician. He served the city of Ozark for many years in various capacities and was the go-to person for plumbing and electrical problems.

Lovie departed this world on June 15, 2020. Lovie loved his family dearly and compassionately. He was preceded in death by his parents, his Aunt Mozell Clark, sister in law AnnaDora Edwards, and sister Mytris Johnson Anderson.

Lovie was united in holy matrimony to Rosey Lee Johnson in 1972. He leaves to cherish 4 children Michael Johnson (Joan), Felita Ann Johnson, Venessia Williams (Rafael), Melanie Robinson (Ramon) and 6 grandchildren. He is survived by 2 sisters Cheryl Bennet (Lorenzo), Catherine Fleming, and 3 brothers James Edwards, Kelvin Butler, Stephon Butler (Valerie) and a host of nieces and nephews.
