

Clarice Ione Stout

Clarice was born January 30, 1942, at Pollock, SD, to Theodore and Addiepearl (Freeman) Geigle. Clarice attended Pollock school and then moved to Sturgis with her parents.

Clarice married George Stout at the First Presbyterian Church in Sturgis on September 8, 1973.

She was an active volunteer and was recognized for her many hours to the Retired Senior Volunteer Program in the Northern Hills on two occasions. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Sturgis. She was an avid collector of dolls and she dearly loved her pets. She also collected stuffed animals. She was a favorite aunt to many nieces and nephews.

Clarice Ione Stout, 71, Sturgis, died Sunday September 29, 2013 at the Rapid City Regional Hospital.

Survivors include her sister, Alva Payne, Mobridge, SD; one foster brother, Gary Freeman, Mandan, ND; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brother-in-law, Grover Payne, and foster brother, Charles Freeman.

A memorial has been established to the Sturgis Animal Shelter.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

The Legacy

*When I die, give what is left of me to children.
If you need to cry, cry for your brothers
walking beside you.
Put your arms around anyone and give them
what you need to give to me.
I want to leave you with something,
something better than words or wounds.
Look for me in the people I have known and loved.
And if you cannot live without me,
Then let me live on in your eyes, your mind,
and your acts of kindness.
You can love me most by letting hands touch hands
And letting go of children that need to be free.
Love does not die, people do.
So when all that is left of me is love...
Give me away...*
