OBITUARY

Antonie Kimble was born to the union of John C. Kimble and Dorothy M. Brown on May 2, 1968 in Chicago, Illinois.

Antonie was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy M. Brown, and three siblings, one of which being his twin brother, Anthony Kimble.

Tony, as everyone called him, and if you knew him, loved to make people laugh. He dedicated his life to Jehovah God on January 7, 1995. He loved serving as a regular pioneer in the ministry and talking to people about God's Kingdom, God's Son, Jesus, and his heavenly Father, Jehovah. He loved spending time with older ones and listening to their stories and their history.

A Poem for Reflection

Imperfection is cold and it doesn't give up.
It runs the gamut until the body has had enough.
Our Brother got tired and had to sleep.
Rest well deserved tho it makes us weep.
Because Jehovah is love he sees our pain from heaven above.
His infinite love provides the resurrection hope,
the best consolation we need the most.
