NO MORE PAIN

*You were on a journey
But you wasn't alone*

*You were in pain and misery
But you kept going on*

*You were strong and pure
True to your test*

*God kept you in His arms
You were truly blessed*

*Even though you're gone
You're not far from home*

*Even though your body is not here
Your spirit and memories live on*

*Our hearts are sadden
But our love is strong*

*We love you Barbara Jean Morton
And right now we say Rest In Peace and so long*

Shonta' Morton Daughter

LIFE REFLECTION OF Barbara

Barbara Jean "Fat" Morton answered her Father's call on Saturday, August 31, 2024, at the age of 64 at Spartanburg Medical Center. A native of Spartanburg, SC, she was the daughter of the late Ernest Morton, Sr. and the late Hattie L. Harris Morton. At an early age she was baptized at the Travelers Rest Missionary Baptist Church and remained a faithful, hardworking member. She was a dedicated member of Travelers Rest Missionary Baptist Church Usher Board for several years. She attended Florence Chapel High School. During her earlier years, she was employed with Arkwright Mills, Startex Mills, Jackson Mills and several restaurants. She was well known for her Honey Bun Cakes.

Left to cherish her fond and loving memories are: two daughters; Shonta' Morton and Erica Morton of Moore, SC, one son; Telly Harris, Sr. and daughter-in-law, Bernnadette Harris both of Inman, SC, three sisters; Sylvia Harris of Wellford, SC, Jerline Giddens of New York, Pearline Morton of Moore, SC, one brother; Ernest Morton, Jr. and sister-in-law Vicky Morton of Spartanburg, SC; grandchildren; Zaccurious (Tuffin) Morton, Mikial (Mimi) Morton, Tyshunna (Miya) Harris, Shontavious (Tae) Gray, Tycoreyan (TY) Gray, Zamina Morton, Karmari Brewton, Telly Harris, Jr., Jabaree Ackbar, Zakkiyya Ackbar, Kenya Ackbar, Khalid Ackbar, Nazar Ackbar, Africa Ackbar, and great grandchildren; Naomi Morton, Kylee Morton, Amere Walls, Jakai Mallory, and future baby Kataleya love Sanders, devoted friends; Lewis Kelly, Minister Odell Sloan, devoted and loyal niece Terresa Harris and Sharon Harris (Communications Specialist), and a host of relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, Ms. Morton was preceded in death by one brother; Johnnie Harris and two sisters; Leona Thompson and Ruby Norman.

Barbara Jean Morton was an honest warrior who insisted that everyone just "keep it real" with her. She loved her church, the usher board, peppermint candy, bottled cherry Pepsi, cross-stitching and watching good old-fashioned Westerns on TV. She was a courageous fighter and endured health issues, through it all she never complained. While being on Dialysis for over twenty years, she remained constant and steadfast in her faith. She loved to attend Bible Study and had a strong relationship with God. After her passing, she still gives to others. She was an organ donor and in return she helped transform many lives.

II Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
