

Crossing Over

Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to Earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years.
I don't want you to keep crying,
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you,
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And, I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe when you say my name,
I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll send messages
And I hope you understand,
That when your time comes to crossover,
I'll be there to take your hand.

In Loving Memory

Alex James Hepper

Alex James Hepper, the son of Brad and Lisa (Lentz) Hepper, was born on October 10, 2007, in Huron, South Dakota. He attended school in Huron, South Dakota.

Alex worked at McDonald's and often enjoyed working some shifts with his big sister, Josalyn.

Alex was a wrestler for the Huron High School Tigers and enjoyed going to the Nordby Center. He enjoyed listening to music, driving around town and hanging out with friends. Alex loved spending time outdoors swimming at both the lake and Splash Central as well as biking around town. Alex enjoyed playing video games and teaching his sister, Carlie how to play the racing games. Alex loved exotic cars, especially the Lamborghini Gallardo, which he tried his hardest to get for his birthday and Christmas this past year.

Grateful for having shared in Alex's life are his parents, Brad and Lisa Hepper of Huron; his sisters, Josalyn and Carlie Hepper, also of Huron; his grandparents, Greg and Donna Hepper and Chuck and Penny Lentz, all of Huron; his aunts and uncles, Jennifer and Mike Law, Jason (Tyra) Lentz, Amanda Lentz and Dillon Lentz; his great-grandmother, Edith Hepper; and several great-aunts, great-uncles and cousins.
