

Elizabeth Jane Jackson

Elizabeth Jane Sellers was born April 30, 1954, in Phoenix Arizona, to Clyde Martin Sellers and Lillie Louise Dean Sellers.

Elizabeth “Liz” was united in marriage to George Jackson on January 6, 1975. They made their home in Box Elder, South Dakota, until moving to Newell, SD, in 2000 with their entire family. While in Newell she helped George run the “Nogotta Ranch”. She loved their home, all her animals, and flowers. Liz was an amazingly hard worker, a strong, stubborn, and courageous woman, to say the least.

Her family was the most important thing in her life. Liz cherished every second of every day that she spent with them.

Liz is survived by her husband, George Jackson; daughter, Denice (Dallas) Scott; granddaughter, Allissa (Greg) Riter; grandson, Kyle Scott; great grandkids, Crisstopher, Kaisynn, Blakeleigh, Nataleigh, and Audrie; sister, Phyllis (Bob) Deaton; brother, Richard Scott Hall; and numerous nieces, and nephews.

She was preceded in death, and will be welcomed into heaven, by her parents, Clyde and Lillie Louise Sellers; sister, Roxanna; grandbabies; and a host of family and friends.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

*The family extends an invitation to join them for fellowship and refreshments at the Sturgis VFW, following the service.
Thank you for your presence and condolences.*

*God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around her and whispered "come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
and saw her fade away
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hardworking hands to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He takes the very best.*
