

Teena Marie Sigman

Teena Marie Sigman, 65, of Sturgis, SD, died Wednesday, November 29, 2023, at Monument Health Spearfish hospital.

Teena Sigman was born December 7, 1957, in Deadwood SD to Jim and Peggy (Horton) Sigman. At the age of 5 she attended the Crippled Children's Hospital and School in Sioux Falls, SD. In 1965, Teena along with her twin sister, Teresa, were poster children for the Easter Seal Society of South Dakota, where they represented our State going to various functions such as teas with the Governor. She remained at the school in Sioux Falls for seven years. Her mother home schooled her on the family ranch in Bear Butte Valley where she was involved in an exercise program. Teena enjoyed being outdoors and wanted to be a part of what was happening on the ranch. She did not let her handicap slow her down.

Teena graduated from Sturgis Brown High School in 1976. She attended Black Hills State University for 2 years and then moved to Sturgis purchasing her own home. She was a member of the Handicapped Citizens; serving as the State President in 1985. She was a member of the Choir in the First Presbyterian Church and served as a Deacon in 1982. She worked for a time at the F.O Jolley Funeral Home, Sturgis Public Library, the National Bank in Sturgis and an in-home phone answering service. Teena was also very involved with the Grace Lutheran Church, helping with the Church bulletin and helping serve meals to the needy.

Teena took a lot of pride in owning her own home and welcomed anyone that came to her door. Until Teresa's passing in 2014, she and Teena visited on the phone every day laughing and sharing their thoughts and memories, especially the time spent in Sioux Falls where they made many memories and friends.

In July of this year, due to declining health, Teena moved into the Rolling Hills Healthcare Nursing Home in Belle Fourche, SD. She enjoyed her short time in the facility and especially enjoyed the visits with family and new friends.

Teena died November 29, 2023, just days before her 66th birthday.

Her survivors include her brother, Bryce (Sandi) Sigman of rural Sturgis; sister, Bekki Reinert of Wall; two nephews, Casey Reinert, Arizona and Cole (Jill) Reinert, rural Wall; three nieces, Breezy (Jon) Millar, Cassie (Ty) Hicks, both of rural Sturgis and Tabitha (Jess) Harris, Hot Springs; six great nieces and eight great nephews, as well as many friends and extended family members.

Preceding her in death were her parents, grandparents, her twin sister Teresa, younger brother Rick and six cousins.

Memorials have been established to the Sturgis Public Library, Grace Lutheran Church in Sturgis and First Presbyterian Church in Sturgis.

December 7, 1957 ~ November 29, 2023

THE LORD'S PRAYER

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those
Who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
And the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.
Amen*
