

Silas C. Grinstead III

It is with a very heavy heart that we announce the passing of a great man, Silas C. Grinstead III of Sturgis.

Silas was born October 20, 1946, in Mooresville, IN, the son of Silas Carl Grinstead, Jr., and Clara L. Grinstead. He moved to Lake Worth, FL, in 1969 where he worked as a General Contractor. Silas moved to Sturgis, SD, in 1994. He resided in Sturgis for the remainder of his life where he was the owner/operator of Days End Campground. He was married to Debbie Hurt, Jill McKinley, and Lorna Wilbanks.

His hobbies included coaching and watching his grandchildren play sports, woodworking, reading books, and of course riding his Harley Davidson. He looked forward to seeing all of his friends every year at the Sturgis Rally. Silas was a great, great man and an amazing father, son, and brother. He had an incredible effect on so many people's lives. He cast a huge shadow. He will be greatly missed.

Survivors include his mother, Clara L. Grinstead; sister, Janice Grinstead; son, Silas C. Grinstead IV; daughter, Gena Rodman; son, Greg Hare; stepson, William McKenzie; stepdaughter, Sarah McKenzie; 15 grandchildren; and 1 great-grandchild.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadefunerals.com.

not the end of the trail.
Travel too fast,
and you miss
all you are traveling for."

-Louis L'Amour

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the Love that we once shared
Miss Me - But let Me Go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
And a step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go*
