

Where The Sidewalk Ends by Shel Silverstein

There is a place where the sidewalk ends
And before the street begins,
And there the grass grows soft and white,
And there the sun burns crimson bright,
And there the moon-bird rests from his flight
To cool in the peppermint wind.

Let us leave this place where the smoke blows black
And the dark street winds and bends.
Past the pits where the asphalt flowers grow
We shall walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
And watch where the chalk-white arrows go
To the place where the sidewalk ends.

Yes we'll walk with a walk that is measured and slow,
And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,
For the children, they mark, and the children, they know
The place where the sidewalk ends.

In Loving Memory

Brady William was born on August 31, 1990, to parents Robert and Bernadine (Waldner) Schutt in Huron. Brady joined big brother, Brad, and was raised in Huron, attending Huron schools. He enjoyed sports and played middle school football. He was most importantly a proud Huron All-Star, playing hockey from mini mites thru high school days.

Brady held different jobs during his life, including HMMI, Lewis Drug, Farmer's Edge, Taco John's, McDonald's, Pullman Well Drilling, Dakota Conservation with his brother, and most recently at AA Motorsports. He enjoyed his time at AA and was loved by his co-workers and customers. When he wasn't working, Brady loved spending time with his family, especially his nieces and nephew—they were his world. He rarely missed any of their events. Brady had a love of Ford Mustangs and his dog, Wookie. He enjoyed listening to music, and looked forward to the Shangri-La Music festival in Harmony Park, Minnesota every year.

Brady recently became a Catholic and was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Parish. He will be loved and missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by his parents, Bob and Bernie Schutt of Huron; his brother, Brad (Angie) of Huron; his nieces and nephew, Emily, Landon, Ellowyn, Lydia and Elizabeth Schutt, all of Huron; his grandmother Linda McCoy of Huron; Aunt Becky Rose of Iowa, Aunt Clara (Terry) Crater of Cavour, Uncle George (Susan) Wallenstein of Worthing, SD, and Uncle Kenny Wallenstein of Huron; several cousins and many special friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather Bernard Waldner, step-grandfather, Richard McCoy, and grandparents Carl and Alice Schutt.
