

"I am the resurrection and the life."

He who believes in Me,
though he may die, he shall live.
And whoever believes in me shall never die."

John 11:25-26

Prodigal

*This earth has been my home so long, and I have loved it well,
But one day I must leave it, just when I cannot tell.
The hour and minute I am scheduled to depart,
Was long ago decided, and is written on God's heart.*

*This is a great old world, and how I wish that I could stay,
But the years keep going faster, and the hours slip away.
But as I near the turning of the road, I pause to view
The yesterdays I've left behind me, as I journey through.*

*One year into another, 'til they form a silver chain,
There are things I would do over, some I would not do again.
Though "Old sins cast long shadows", however long confessed,
With all my heart I do believe I'll find a place to rest.*

*Within the arms of Jesus, where no heartache and no pain,
Will ever be allowed to touch this prodigal again.
And throughout all eternity, my greatest joy will be,
That the Shepherd left His ninety-nine . . .
To come in search of me!!*
