

Eunice Irene “Granny” Fowlkes

Eunice was born on November 26, 1924, to George and Eunice (Cathey) Mowery three miles east of Hulett, WY. She grew up and attended school in the Hulett area and achieved her GED. It was there in Hulett that she met Frank Fowlkes while he was in the Army. When he was transferred to Denver, CO, she went with him and they were married there. They moved around while Frank was in the service but they eventually settled down in Sturgis.

Granny enjoyed reading, writing letters to various people and her family, traveling, reading her Bible, and spending time with her kids and grandkids. She recently wrote a letter to one of her granddaughters that said, “Don’t worry about Granny. I win either way. If I stay, I’m with Jesus and He is with me. If I go, I will join Him on the other side.” We believe she is at home with Jesus.

She was a member of the Crossroads Assembly of God Church for many years.

Eunice Irene “Granny” Fowlkes, 89, Sturgis, died on Tuesday, February 18, 2014, at Rapid City Regional Hospital from complications of surgery.

Granny is survived by her children, Chuck (Ula) Fowlkes, Sturgis, Shirley Harris, Sturgis, and Ann Molk, Billings; step-daughter, Mary; ten grandchildren; thirty great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren; ten step-grandsons; and sister, Inez Truman.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Frank; sons, Dennis and Dee; four brothers; and one sister.

A memorial has been established to the Crossroads Assembly of God Church.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.kinkadeefunerals.com.

*The family extends an invitation to join them for fellowship and refreshments in the church hall immediately following the funeral service.
We thank you for your presence and condolences.*

Romans 8:1

King James Version (KJV)

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

Grandma's Legacy

*She'd always have a treat for me -
Just take a peek in her purse and see
Maybe a stick of gum or candy
Grandma always kept it handy.*

*She was short and soft and warm and fun
When I was little we'd rock and hum.
She'd brush my hair and fix it nice
She'd even let me fix hers once or twice.*

*Only Grandma could cook for a crew
Of fourteen grandkids - all under shoe.
She'd laugh and chuckle and turn to the jar
At Grandma's the cookies were never far.*

*As time went by we all grew
The cousins scattered until only a few
Could take some time and help her out
Time made it hard for Grandma to get about.*

*I kissed her soft white curls that day
Her savior called her name and took her away.
We sang her favorite, "Amazing Grace"
We knew where she was by the look on her face.*

*Time has come and gone since then
But headed home the memories I recall when
I smell the cookies through Mom's door
And see all her grandkids playing on the floor.*
